New name and new image for reopening of nightclub

by Tom Glover

THE new mystery owners of the former DeVinchies nightclub confirmed plans this week to re-open the popular nightspot.

Rumours of the club re-opening began circulating in the summer when workmen were spotted at the building.

Speculation around the town has been rife in recent weeks with rumours that the club will reopen before Christmas.

The new owners, who wish to remain anonymous, denied that an opening date had been set but said they hope to re-open the venue in the near future.

The announcement comes five years after the club's closure and after a series of attempts to redevelop the building for housing. The nightclub closed in 2005 due to increased competition from town centre pubs following the change in licensing laws.

Plans to reopen the venue will be met with a mixed response. An online tribute page has attracted more than 550 supporters since the club's closure but nearby residents have previously raised concerns about a possible reopening.

The former nightclub is being developed by two Bridport men, who are keen to shake off the club's previous image.

The owners hope the new venue will cater for the wider community and not just become a late night drinking spot for young people.

As part of its re-invention the venue will be renamed and will also intend to run a series of events throughout the week to cater for a range of age groups.

The new owners are currently investigating the possibility of various day-time and evening events.

More details on the new owners and plans for the building will be announced in the coming weeks.

ARTIST Laura Coats is 25-years-old and has spent most of her life in Bath, until moving to Lyme Regis a year ago.

She left school at 15 with no qualifications and has mostly worked in hotels and bars. But in the past 10 years Laura discovered and developed her various artistic abilities.

She was part of the recent Artsfest in Lyme Regis and is now looking forward to getting stuck into her next project - sculpture and paper making, which is something she's always had an interest in.

Laura is currently putting together a collection of all her best works on her website www.lacoats.com, which includes all her paintings, projects, writing and creative blogs, which she plan to turn into an online digital open workshop where people can see how she creates her various pieces and share her skills.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

■ HAVING lived in Bath, what drew you to Lyme Regis?

Bath is a beautiful place and I was lucky to have been born there, but as I got older I felt I was really stagnating and needed a change. I was really lacking creative enthusiasm and inspiration and was happy to make the move. I've always wanted to live by the sea, but what really drew me here was the serenity of the town, the tranquil surroundings and the beautiful community of Lyme Regis.

■ WHAT makes Lyme such a draw for artists?

I think Lyme is a haven for artists because it's such a peaceful and picturesque place and when I am walking down by the seafront I find so much inspiration in the thoughtful little details of the town such as the ammonite patterns on the lamps and the beautiful colours on the beach huts. I think also because the artistic community is so strong it makes you feel like you are really part of something as an artist here and that in itself is very encouraging.

■ WHAT do you prefer to paint and why?

I paint all kinds of subjects really. I have three main themes which run throughout most of my work but I don't class myself as a very conventional artist because although my style and technique is very classic I prefer to paint things which might seem a little unusual. My main theme which I have adopted over the years is nature's elements, especially air and water but I have also done a series of paintings based on hands and very recently discovered I have a growing fascination for ruins.

■ WHO is your favourite artist and why?

My favourite artist is William Turner because I very much love the more classic style of art and his romantic landscapes I find particularly inspiring. I do also however really like the works of Monica Sjöö and was lucky enough to see her exhibition which ran in the Hotbath Gallery in Bath in 2004.

■ IF you could invite any three people from throughout history to a dinner party who would they be and why?

I think it would have to be Oscar Wilde for the witty banter, Sir Ian McKellen who is one of my favourite actors and Big Bird from Sesame Street because he's just so cool.

■ WHAT was the last song you played on your iPod, book you read, and tv show you watched?

I am always attached to my iPod and the last song I played was Love Will Tear Us Apart by Joy Division. The last book I read was The Book Of Lost Things by John Connoly which came recommended and was a great read indeed. The last TV show was The Inbetweeners.

■ IF you won the lottery, which three things would you buy first?

I'd probably buy a studio, a small piece of land for my mum to get more chickens and my sister to keep a horse on, and a really big hat with a feather in it.

■ HAVE you any shows coming up after Artsfest?

I would love to do another show after Artsfest. This was my first exhibition and it's been a great experience. I have felt especially honoured for my first time, showing my work alongside so many other brilliant and talented artists. I'm getting some ideas together and really hope to do another show in the not too distant future though now I have the confidence.

■ How does your art influence your poetry and prose writing?

I actually find my art is often a hindrance to my writing and vice versa. I put a lot of my heart into painting and a lot of my soul into writing but I usually find I go through phases of either one or the other. Sometimes all my creative energy goes into painting and I can barely string a decent rhyme together whereas other times I can sit for an hour at the easel and not be able to put brush to canvas because I have to many words in my head which I need to extract onto paper.

Crime figures down by a third

VIOLENT crime in Bridport, Beaminster and Lyme Regis has dropped by more than a third in the last year.

The Bridport section has seen a 36.3 per cent drop in violent crime with just 137 incidents since last October, in comparison to last year's figure of 215.

Bridport Section Commander, Inspector Caroline Naughton, praised Dorset Police's summer campaign "Operation Protect" for aiding the reduction in crime.

Inspector Naughton said: "We have been really pleased with the operation. It has provided us with the opportunity to put more officers out on foot patrol and that in turn raises the confidence of the public."

Operation Protect was designed specifically to tackle violent crime in Dorset's town centres over the summer months, and enforced the section's yearlong efforts to tackle the issue.

Dorset police alongside health workers, Dorset fire and rescue staff, local councils and voluntary sector workers took to the streets in the early evenings to tackle violence through increased enforcement and prevention activity. Bridport town centre was targeted throughout the summer and saw a 19 per cent drop in violent crime.

Dorset Police Superintendent Jane Newall, who oversaw the operation, said: "As the evenings get lighter and warmer, police in these towns traditionally see an increase in incidents of violence linked to alcohol.

"To tackle this, we put a variety of partnership resources into the towns, early on in the evening, to prevent incidents from occurring and provide a quick response to arising incidents in a bid to prevent escalation and we succeeded."

Clampdown leads to village drugs raid

by Paul Crompton

A MULTI-county police clampdown on organised crime saw officers sweep into the sleepy village of Higher Eype during a drugs raid.

A quantity of white powder – believed to be cocaine – was confiscated from the residential property as Dorset police executed the warrant.

Officers also seized a quantity of other drugs related paraphernalia.

A man in his twenties has been bailed pending further enquiries following his arrest on suspicion of possession of a Class A substance.

Police forces from across the south-west have joined together under the umbrella name of Zephyr, to tackle crime throughout the region.

Inspector Caroline Naughton said: "We will continue to work together with Zephyr to tackle drug related crime in our area and bring offenders to justice. We are committed to keeping our communities safe and thank residents for their continued co-operation."

The new regional team has been set up to tackle serious and organised crime in the South West, with officers recruited from Avon and Somerset, Wiltshire, Devon and Cornwall, Gloucestershire and Dorset.

Anyone with any information on drug dealing in their area can report it to Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Tent set on fire

A TENT in Askers Meadow was partially destroyed in an arson attack last week.

The incident happened in the early evening of Wednesday, October 6th, a 29-year-old local man has been arrested and is currently on police bail pending further enquiries.

Police are appealing for witnesses who may have been in the popular dog walking spot. If you saw any suspicious activity please contact PC Sean Cannon at Bridport police station

● THE window of "Toymaster" in South Street was smashed at around 2am on the morning of Sunday, October 3rd.

Bridport Police are particularly keen to hear from a young couple who were in the area. The man was described as white with short dark hair, dark hoody, blue jeans and white trainers. The woman, who police believe is called "Chloe" is described as white, slim build, approximately 5 feet 8 tall with long blonde hair. She was wearing a long pink top and black leggings, white high heels and a white handbag. Anybody who witnessed this incident or who may know "Chloe" is asked to contact PC Mullin at Bridport Police Station.

● POLICE are on the hunt for "cowardly and vindictive" vandals who punctured tyres on a car in the town. The damage occurred to a silver Ford Focus which was parked in Castle Square overnight on Tuesday, October 5th.

Police described the incident as a "cowardly and vindictive attack directed at the owner of the vehicle". Anybody who witnessed this incident or anyone with any information should contact PC McGregor at Bridport Police station.

Book shop is among the best

THE Independent newspaper heaped praise on Bridport's "The Book Shop" in a top 50 list published at the weekend.

The Book Shop was voted in at number 21 in the newspaper's top 50 list of British book shops.

On the judging panel for the competition were five literary heavyweights led by The Independent's own literary editor Boyd Tonkin.

Also on the panel were Chris Conway, managing director of The Book Partnership; Philip Jones, deputy editor of 'The Bookseller'; Glenn Patterson, novelist; and co-founders of Short Books, Aurea Carpenter and Rebecca Nicolson.

The Book Shop's nomination was accompanied by the commendation "a true example of independent bookselling, concentrating on connecting customers to books they might actually read, rather than simply selling them by the pound/yard".

Ross Hendry, owner of The Book Shop, said he is very gratified that the shop has received this recognition and believes it is due to "our hard-working. friendly and knowledgeable staff, an excellent reward scheme for regular customers, concentration on good literature and back-list rather than the latest ephemeral "pot-boilers" and speedy delivery of special orders".

Approval for social care

SOCIAL care services provided for adults by Dorset County Council have received a seal of approval from the national inspectors.

An inspection by the national Care Quality Commission has found that the County Council is performing well in supporting improved quality of life for adults with mental health needs and performing adequately in safeguarding adults.

Looking to the future, the commission recognised that Dorset has a clear vision for social care and the outlook for improvements is promising.

Inspectors were impressed with Dorset's partnership working to develop services and also the range of services available to help people stay independent and in control.

Other achievements highlighted in the report include:

- People who use services and carers get advice and support an early stage
- Good quality information is available through channels such as dorsetforyou.com, the Dorset Direct contact centre and a wide range of public information leaflets in a variety of formats
- Support services take account of the needs of individuals, carers and families
- Support is given at an early stage to help people stay independent
- A range of initiatives that promoted the safety of vulnerable adults at home has been developed
- The council effectively engage partner agencies to develop safeguarding practice
- People with mental health needs were involved in their assessments which focussed on their recovery
- The number of people with mental health needs who had been supported to gain employment had increased
- The council provides an effective range of training and development opportunities for its staff and staff in partner agencies

The Care Quality Commission praised the council for the number of initiatives developed to ensure that citizens, staff and partners were involved in the development of services and how people using the services got the opportunity to give feedback on their experiences.

The report states that the council gave high priority to providing value for money services and had made good progress in reducing and preventing high cost residential and nursing care placements for people with mental health needs, instead supports people to live well in their own homes and communities.

The council was also commended for the range of multi-agency community safety initiatives and services in place to support vulnerable adults to keep safe in their own homes and also for giving a high profile to issues of dignity and tackling discrimination and harassment.

The report did call for more work to improve joint commissioning practice and develop more integrated services with health partners as well as engage more with people with mental health needs from black and ethnic communities to develop services to meet their needs.

Debbie Ward, Director of Adult and Community Services, said: "This is an independent verdict on essential services that the council provides and I am pleased that the hard work and commitment of all our staff and partners has been recognised and seen to be effective. "

Savings to be made in waste disposal

ALL seven Dorset councils will vote this month on whether to join a county-wide waste partnership expected to save them £1million a year by 2016.

The Dorset Waste Partnership would deliver a waste collection, disposal and cleansing service, and would manage an in-house workforce to collect waste and keep our streets and public beaches clean across the county.

As well as achieving financial savings the partnership would aim to reduce waste collected and increase recycling rates to 60 per cent.

As it stands, waste services are expected to cost more than £28.5m in 2010/11, rising to over £30m by 2015/16, which is largely due to an annual increase in landfill tax. By working in partnership but continuing to operate current recycling and refuse collection systems the seven councils could achieve savings of at least £1million a year by 2015/16.

However, it is envisaged that in the future the councils would agree a standard recycling and refuse collection service, which would be rolled out across the county, saving up to £2m a year across all authorities by 2016/17.

Shopping mall for Bridport?

A TOWN tram, ice rink and shopping mall were a few of the ideas shared by young people during the annual town council democracy day on Monday.

Students from The Sir John Colfox School worked with councillors and council officials to learn about the democratic process and then had a go at developing their own policies.

The event at the town hall, organised by Bridport Town Council, coincided with the European week for local democracy.

DEMOCRACY DAY: Colfox school pupils at the town council's democracy day

by Tom Glover

One popular issue raised by students was the need for a young person's bus pass, an issue raised at previous democracy days.

Town Councillor Martin Ray said: "One youngster said 'why should you have a bus pass when we don't?'. It's a good question. These are the people who don't have much money or their own transport whereas a lot of older people can afford to use the bus.

"Why shouldn't people with bus passes who don't use them be allowed to donate their pass to young people."

Other popular themes on the day included a nightclub for under 18s, bowling alley and boat tours around West Bay.

After drawing up their policies each group presented their ideas and then voted on who had the best vision for Bridport.

In a repeat of this year's general elections it looked like the students would have to form a coalition government but councillors prematurely introduced the new voting system to allow the students to find a clear winner.

Town Mayor, Councillor Geoff Ackerman said: "I think it has gone very well. This is the third time we have done this and the children have come up with some very good ideas.

"I think the young people realise now that it takes an awful lot of time and money to get something put through but at some point I'm sure some of these ideas can be discussed."

New beginning for Bridport Arts Centre

■ PARTY TIME - Members enjoy the celebration on the relaid forecourt in front of the newly painted building

by Tom Glover

A TRIPLE celebration took place at Bridport Arts Centre to mark a new start for the historic building.

A members' party was held on the newly laid forecourt to thank them for their support this year. The party was also a celebration of the year's performances at the arts centre and a goodbye to Lindsay Brooks, who has stepped down as director.

The party also saw the launch of Bridport Arts Centre's "Sponsor A Seat" campaign to replace the worn out chairs in the auditorium.

At the members party guests enjoyed a performance from Nikki Northover's dance group, and tucked into food lovingly prepared by the Arts Centre staff - including reproductions of the cakes Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall made on his visit to Bridport Arts Centre back in May.

The paving on the forecourt has been relaid to create more space and the front of the building has been painted in line with the colours shown on a watercolour of the front facade from 1838.

The money for the work on the forecourt has been raised by the "We love BAC Appeal", launched last year that has featured events including concerts by Show of Hands, local band Elijah Wolf and the Rubalous and a talk by furniture designer John Makepeace.

The party also provided members with a chance to say goodbye to Lindsay Brooks, who has stood down as director of Bridport Arts Centre. Polly Gifford, previously of the De La Warr Pavillion in Bexhill, East Sussex, will be taking over the role this month.

. . . and TV celebrity will front sponsor campaign

■ POSTER BOY: Ben Fogle will unveil the new seating at Bridport's Arts Centre

TV personality Ben Fogle has joined forces with Bridport Arts Centre as the face for their "Sponsor a Seat" campaign.

The arts centre is looking for people to sponsor their new seating and in exchange they will be offered a commemorative plaque, with wording of their choice, and a chance to meet Ben at the unveiling ceremony.

Ben has fond memories of the area, having attended school in Dorset, and is passionate about theatre and community entertainment.

Ben said: "The Arts Centre is an important place for the community to meet, work and - most importantly - be entertained. There is nothing worse than sitting down on an uncomfortable chair to watch something wonderful.

"I know that when I rowed across the Atlantic Ocean in 2005, with James Cracknall I was looking forward to a comfy chair at the end of the race. A chair can make you feel better, help you to relax, or it is even something you don't notice if it is just right. I know Goldilocks felt the same way too!"

Over the last few months, the arts centre has been trying out a range of seats and have plumped for a solution in use at the BBC's studios in Maida Vale, in the O2 Arena and theatres large and small across the country.

There is a sample seat for visitors to try out in the foyer of the arts centre.

Seat sponsorship is £160 or £150 for two or more seats, including a plaque with words of your choice. Please contact Ellie (Marketing Manager) at ellie@bridport-arts.com for more details.

Business roadshow

THE newly launched Dorset Export Group (DEG) will hold a roadshow event in Bridport tomorrow (Thursday).

Major Events International in collaboration with Dorset County Council welcomed 50 businesses to the launch earlier this month, to see how DEG can enhance business opportunities in the region.

At the meeting Miles Butler from Dorset County Council , explained why the council has seed funded this initiative, illustrating why businesses should seize opportunities off the back of the 2012 Olympics and making sure Dorset maximises its moment in the spotlight.

The Dorset Export Group Road Show will be at the Bull Hotel in Bridport at 3:30pm on Thursday, October 14th.

If you would like to attend this event please contact Amy at abrice@majoreventsint.com.

Give thanks for hospital

AN invite to come together and celebrate the vital provisions the NHS gives is extended to all residents.

Last year St. Mary's Church in Bridport held an evening service of thanksgiving for Bridport Community Hospital and all involved with the NHS in any way - users or providers.

Bridport Hospital's League of Friends decided to make Hospital Sunday an annual event.

The hospital chaplain, the Reverend Philip Ringer will be leading the service.

He said: "Most families have the need to call upon the hospital and the NHS at some time.

"This service provides the ideal opportunity to give thanks to God for the provision we enjoy in this community and to pray for his guidance on all those who have to make difficult decisions in the changing economic climate affecting public spending.

"I look forward to welcoming many folk to church.'

The service will be on Sunday, October 17th at 6.30pm at St. Mary's Church, South Street, Bridport and will be followed by refreshments. All are welcome.

New season for Bridport Camera Club

by Tom Glover

BRIDPORT Camera Club's new season is developing nicely following two popular sessions with advice from club veterans and experts.

At their first meeting Simon Nobes, the club's projectionist and IT expert, gave useful advice about image resizing in readiness for forthcoming competitions. The talented Pete Millson, who stepped into the breach at short notice to take the sessions for which Tara Wickham had been booked, gave an extremely informative illustrated demonstration of portraiture under natural light. His recognisable style and his practical advice, gained over 20 years of experience, impressed his captive audience and inspired many for the season ahead.

Pete Millson will be returning to the club in February next year to see how members have developed.

At their meeting last week the renowned John Tilsley presented an evening entitled "Strategies on how to improve your images".

The next meeting of the club is on October 20th, which is a competition night, with no set subject for entries.

More details can be found at www.bridportcamerclub.co.uk.

Time to get a flu jab

DOCTORS in West Dorset are reminding people in at-risk groups, to protect themselves against seasonal flu this winter. At riskgroups who are entitled to a free seasonal flu jab are:

- those aged 65 or over
- those who have a serious illness, including:
- chronic heart conditions,
- chronic respiratory conditions (including asthma)
- chronic kidney disease or diabetes
- lowered immunity due to HIV, steroid medication or cancer treatment
- those who live in a long-stay residential home
- main carers of an older or disabled person
- mums to be
- health care workers

Those who are eligible are being advised to arrange their seasonal flu jab as soon as possible by contacting their GP.

Denise Winter, Health Programme Advisor (Immunisations) with NHS Dorset, said: "In the majority of cases seasonal flu is not serious, it just causes a short period of illness before a return to their normal health. However for people in some at risk groups and those over 65, the virus can sometimes cause a number of problems including bronchitis, pneumonia or worse. As the strains of the virus are constantly changing, to ensure maximum protection, we are encouraging anyone who is being offered the vaccine this year to accept even if they had it last year or are not normally affected".

The big roast dinner

PUPILS from Beaminster School enjoy their roast dinner

OVER 1,000 pupils across Dorset entered the record books last week after taking part in the national roast dinner day.

Roast pork, potatoes, vegetables and gravy were on the menu in 23 of Dorset's primary schools provided by Local Food Links kitchens in Bridport and Blandford.

The record attempt, on Wednesday of last week, was organised nationally by the Food for Life Partnership, with 5000 schools taking part nationwide.

The previous record stood at just 1362 people, meaning pupils across the county have now entered Guinness World Record books for the "largest simultaneous roast dinner".

SAYING THANKS – Members of the Western area residents' panel are thanked for all their hard work

Thanks to Magna residents' panels

MAGNA Housing have thanked their three residents' panels for their work over the past few years.

The panels have helped shape Magna's service standards, community strategy, policies and procedures as well as influencing strategic thinking and the business plan.

And they have distributed thousands of pounds to local causes through the community initiative fund.

Resident involvement manager Marianne Fendle said: "We want them to know how much we appreciate the work they have done. Their input has made a real difference to how Magna is run."

At their annual general meetings earlier this year, members voted to dissolve the panels and form one strategic group called Community Connections.

This represents the new way that residents work in partnership with the Magna.

Marianne said: "Some of the residents' panel members now sit on Community Connections. Others are on working groups within Magna, including the Community Initiative Fund forum.

"This assesses which local causes should receive money from the fund. The most recent was the Dorchester Opportunities Group, a preschool for disabled children, which was presented with a cheque for £3,000 to help keep it going after it nearly closed through lack of funds.

"Residents have done a terrific job and it's through the panels that we have been able to form Community Connections, which has a more strategic approach to resident involvement.

"Community Connections work with senior managers on strategy, policy, performance and benchmarking and will be looking at ways to scrutinise and inspect our services to make sure they're up to scratch."

The group, which was formed in April this year, can have up to 11 elected members and there will be a constitution to govern and guide them.

Marianne continued: "The aim of Community Connections is to support the board and staff of Magna and influence services for residents by working positively in partnership."

Swimarathon swimmers raise over £3,000 for Lions

SWIMMERS in Bridport notched up 1,650 laps as they once again raised thousands for Bridport Lions.

The swimarathon, now in its 17th year, is the Lions biggest fundraiser of the year.

This year a total of 28 teams helped raise a total of £3,050, which will now be distributed to local charities and organisations.

The charity side of the event doesn't make the swimmers any less competitive and this year's winners were the Bridport Barracudas.

The barracudas senior team chalked up 101 laps in their one-hour time slot, the junior team also won their category with 83 laps.

In the mixed age group category the winners were the Bridport Coastguards who recorded 65 laps.

A Lions spokesperson said: "The swimarathon was a huge success. Every team that entered made a tremendous effort and swan with gusto to obtain as many laps as they possibly could.

YOUNG SWIM STARS: The junior barracudas who completed 83 laps

"Bridport Lions say well done to everyone who took part.

"The day was made even more enjoyable by the swimming instructors who were adorned in Hawaiian costumes and provided great entertainment with their antics.

"We were also delighted to see a team of enthusiastic swimmers with disabilities who added to the pleasure of the day."

It was also a record year for sponsorship and Bridport Lions wished to thank all those who sponsored lanes on the day and donated raffle prizes.

■ APPLE DAY - Richard Toft with Apples at the orchard Photos by TRICIA HAWKINS

Looking forward to a bumper crop

APPLE day returns to Bridport's Community orchard this month with a programme of events for all the family.

Last year's apple day drew around 1,000 people to the orchard and organisers are hoping to build on that success.

The event, organised in conjunction with the Symondsbury Apple project, is part of a national day of celebration of orchards and apples.

Activities will include cider tasting, apple displays and identification and craft demonstrations.

There will also be ploughman's lunches, cakes and apple products available on the day.

The community orchard is located behind St Mary's Church in South Street. Visitors on the day are advised to park at Bridport Football Club car park. If the weather is bad then the event will be moved to the church house.

Apple Day will run from 11am to 3pm on Saturday, October 23rd.

Palmers support for orchestra

CONNOISSEURS of fine wine will be able to help raise funds for a Dorset orchestra each time they raise a glass thanks to the initiative of a Bridport company.

At a time when all arts funding is under pressure, Palmers Brewery has chosen to support Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra by donating five per cent of all Palmers-BSO Wine Club sales.

Simon Taylor, Chief Executive of the BSO said: "This is an excellent new relationship, and a prime example of how business and the arts can work together to mutual advantage. We look forward to a long and valuable partnership with Palmers Wine Store."

The BSO was established in 1893 by Sir Dan Godfrey, As well as orchestral concerts, the BSO is strongly committed to its award-winning community and education programme, which includes national curriculum workshops in schools, tea dances for the elderly and free concerts for schoolchildren.

Palmers Wine Store is owned by Palmers Brewery of Bridport, brewers of traditional ales since 1794 and sells more than 800 character wines from around the world.

Mark Banham, manager of Palmers Wine Store, said: "The wine club has been developed to supply those with a keen interest in the music of the BSO with wine of high quality, character and value. Palmers are delighted to offer a number of hand-selected set dozens available to order online delivered direct to your door."

The first two cases to be offered come delivered to the door with tasting notes. They are the Quarternote Dozen at £79.99; and the Conductors' Dozen at £112.99. For full details and orders visit www.palmerswinestore.com

BRADPOLE

BRADPOLE residents can share their vision for the village at a "Meet and Greet" session this week.

The Bradpole Parish Plan steering committee is holding the event, encouraging local residents and businesses to share their views on developing the village. The open meeting marks the start of the process consulting the community in developing and implementing the parish plan.

The plan will spell out how residents want the community to develop in the future, including social, economic and environmental concerns. The ideas suggested at the "Meet & Greet" will form the basis of a questionnaire, which will be sent out in January.

Newly-elected chairman Frederick Hudson said: "Our public exhibition is a great opportunity for everyone in the community, from schoolchildren to pensioners, to have a say in what they would like to see in Bradpole and how they see the village developing in the future.

"Over the next six months we are planning to engage with all sectors of the community to ensure everyone has an opportunity to get involved."

The Bradpole Parish Plan public exhibition will be held at the village hall on Friday (October 15th). The event will be open from 2pm to 8pm.

Residents who wish to keep up-to-date with the progress of the Parish Plan or get involved can find more information on www.bradpole.org.uk. The plan will be developed over the next 12 months with the aim for the final plan to be circulated to residents at the end of 2011.

Pupils up for the challenge

PUPILS at Powerstock Primary School proved they are real page-turners after completing Dorset Library' Services' reading challenge.

The children completed the library's "Quest Seeker" challenge, which required them to read six books over the summer holidays.

As a reward for their efforts the children received a free fold-out poster, bookmark and membership card and stickers. Those who completed the reading challenge were awarded medals and certificates.

The Powerstock pupils were presented with their certificates last week at the school's book day.

The young readers were suitably dressed for the occasion with everyone from Harry Potter to the mysterious bat-boy being represented.

■ QUEST SEEKERS – Powerstock Primary School pupils who completed the reading challenge

Education

Wellington School

WHY do so many families choose to send their children to Wellington School? Is it because of its consistently good academic results (this year 75% of our A level grades were at A* -B with 14% at A*)? Or perhaps its highly acclaimed reputation for music and theatre, sport and outdoor activities? Or maybe is it the realistic fees that make independent education a very real possibility or the extensive school bus routes throughout Devon and Somerset (including a popular Honiton run) that make getting to and fro so easy? Or is it, as so many prospective parents say, the welcoming atmosphere they feel on first entering the School and the evident enthusiasm for learning seen in every classroom from the youngest in the Junior School right through to the Sixth Form?

The ethos of Wellington School is simple; that each and every pupil should be helped and encouraged to develop his or her own particular talents to the full. Traditional values of hard work, good behaviour and unpretentious manners are held in high esteem, complemented by the total commitment of the staff to the individual needs, personal welfare and happiness of every single pupil.

The entrance exam for Year 7 takes place on Saturday 8 January so if you would like your son or daughter to take part, please contact the school on 01823 668800 for a registration form. All-rounder scholarship assessment and music scholarship auditions take place the following week.

Colyton Grammar School

COLYTON Grammar School has a national reputation for excellence and is consistently amongst the leading schools in England. It is one of the few in the country to have received four successive 'outstanding judgements' in Ofsted Inspections.

This co-educational school offers an intimate and supportive community in which students are known individually. Ofsted judged that 'the school has a culture of the highest possible achievement and that this fosters the excellent attitude towards learning.'

Students take their GCSE examinations at the end of Year10 and then spend three years in the Sixth Form working on a rich and broad programme toward A levels and the English Baccalaureate qualification.

There is a wide extra-curricular programme including sport, music, drama, out-door education and a range of cultural activities.

The school serves students from East Devon, South Somerset and West Dorset and there is transport from all areas to the School. Entrance is by 11+ Test. For further details email: admin@colytongrammar.devon.sch.uk, website www.colytongrammar.devon.sch.uk or telephone 01297 552327.

Sunninghill Preparatory School

A bright future at Sunninghill Prep School

"THERE is fresh evidence of parents choosing to invest in their children's education", says Andrew Roberts-Wray, Headteacher at Sunninghill Prep School in Dorchester. "Parents seem to want to invest their money in giving their children a flying start to their education before choosing a good local secondary school. Parents choose Thomas Hardye, or a top independent school such at Sherborne, Canford and Leweston; often with a scholarship," he asserts. "Coming to Sunninghill gives parents real choice because we prepare children to achieve excellent results at Key Stage 3 and in the Common Entrance examination. This year Sunninghill has had great success with 7 scholarships from 10 pupils in Year 8 being awarded.

In addition Sunninghill is pleased to announce the successful acquisition of the adjacent playing field, which will enhance their sporting facilities and give opportunities for sharing with the local community. It has been a busy summer linking Sunninghill to pupils from the Dorchester Area Schools Partnership by hosting the accredited 'Gifted Talented Programme'. Oliver Letwin acknowledged the forward-looking partnership of Thomas Hardye and Sunninghill Prep schools in hosting this new venture, by saying "It is wonderful that these very special courses are going to be on offer locally. I do congratulate you."

My pet is terrified of fireworks... Advice on what to do

WHAT to do straight away

Provide a den or hiding place

Animals naturally hide when they are scared and it can help to provide a 'safe place' which they can squeeze into, like an understairs cupboard or an indoor kennel with blankets over the top and inside. An ideal place is somewhere near the centre of the house, or somewhere they have already hidden.

Muffle the sound of fireworks

Close curtains, shut outside doors and windows, and have your pet as near to the centre of the house as possible. Put on the TV or radio to mask the bangs.

Keep them inside

Don't let pets outside when fireworks are likely or during a display. Take dogs out for toilet purposes before it gets dark and then keep them in. A firework going off when they are outside can lead to a fear of going out.

Don't over-fuss them

This can be difficult, but if they rely on you for comfort during scary events, they will be less able to cope when you are not at home and make matters worse in the long term.

Stay calm yourself

Most pets can sense when their owners are worried, and this increases their stress. Let them hide in the den, and leave them there until the fireworks have finished and they come out. You can give your pet lots of fuss once they emerge.

Don't get angry

Although your pets behaviour may be annoying, it is happening because they are scared and getting cross will only make them worse. Don't try and take your pet out of its hiding place – this increases their stress and could lead to aggression.

Prepare for unusual behaviour

Fear can make your pet behave out of character. For example, if they anticipate that going into the garden predicts a loud noise, they may hide or show aggression to avoid going outside.

Talk to us

We can advise short-term measures which may include medications, particularly if they don't settle but pace around in distress. This will help reduce your pets stress during upcoming firework events and help prevent their fears becoming worse. We can also advise a long-term preventative approach also advise a long-term preventative approach.

PADS - Rosemary Young

I HAVE been involved with dogs all my life. I started training and competing in competitive obedience some thirty years ago. I am now a Kennel Club obedience judge for this discipline.

PADS dog training school is held at Melplash Village Hall on Thursdays and Fridays. We provide basic pet training, foundation work for agility, dance, and training for competition. We keep our classes small to give individual training. During the summer months we hold outside classes, usually on a Wednesday, specialising in the problems of getting the dog back when called.

As a gold level member of the Academy of Dog trainers and behaviourist, I am fully qualified to teach the kennel Clubs Good citizens Award schemes. We run these schemes as separate course allowing people to understand fully their dogs and tests standard required.

I have always had a love for the working mind of the dog, and have a diploma in dog psychology. Understanding both dog and people I feel is of top priority and I always try and suit training to the person and their dog.

THIS is a small establishment catering for both dogs and cats, which has been owned and run by the Chapman family since 1968. We aim for a consistently high standard of care, and dogs and cats which board here are known by name and treated as individuals. Over the years we have looked after generations of pets from families who have become personally known to us.

All pets must be fully inoculated, including infectious bronchitis (kennel cough) vaccine for dogs. Your veterinary surgeon will advise you. Please bring your vaccination certificates when your pet arrives at the kennels.

All kennels and cat houses are heated, with secure outside runs. A very large grass area, which is securely fenced, is provided so that dogs may have proper exercise.

Taylor's Dog Grooming

WHAT is the most popular pet in Britain today? Most of us would say it is a close contest between cats and dogs. Cats are independent, coming and going as they please. Not so with dogs, dogs need you! When people first acquire a dog it is sometimes for all the wrong reasons. Maybe a pet for the children or, "wouldn't it be nice to have a dog to take for a walk at the weekends" forgetting that he needs a walk the rest of the week too! The novelty starts to wear off; this is why we see so many of our four legged friends in rescue centres. Dogs need to become part of the family not a chore. Keeping your dog happy is an ongoing labour of love. Every pet deserves a treat so contact Bev Taylor and have your dog groomed. Tel 07866 647834 & 01297 489302.

Woodlands Farm Kennels & Cattery

Mary is also back in the grooming room which is open to residents and non residents alike, she has been grooming for almost 45 years. Our program of repairs and improvements continues, at present with the refurbishment of the cattery continuing after a pause. Dont forget to make your boarding and grooming bookings for Christmas We are always fully booked quite early. Mary and Alan are always pleased to see clients old and new. ## Evelyne O'Hare - West Dorset Chiropractic Centre

WHY should my pet have chiropractic care?
Just like people, animals can sometimes get stiff and sore in their spines and joints. This can often be due to lifestyle.
Our pets often have long periods of inactivity, when we are out at work, followed by bursts of energetic activity, when we play with them or take them out for walks. We have bred them to develop certain body shapes, which are different to how they evolved naturally, and we walk them on leads and harnesses, which sometimes they pull against. And of course as they get older they can get wear and tear to their joints. Dogs and cats can also suffer from many of the same joint problems that we humans get such as prolapsed (slipped) discs or arthritis.

We go to the chiropractor for help getting straight again so why not extend the same care to our pets? Chiropractic should never be a substitute for veterinary care, and we work closely with the vets to provide a complete range of care for your animal. After being referred by the vet, your animal chiropractor will take a detailed history about the animal's presenting symptoms and behaviour. The animal's posture will be assessed and movement or gait will be assessed for any lameness or stiffness or if the animal is moving in an unexpected way. A course of treatment will be discussed and you will be advised on aftercare.

Southfield Veterinary Centre

REFURBISHMENT at Southfield Veterinary Centre is now nearing completion and we would like to thank our clients for being patient whilst the work has been carried out. The large animal department split away to form Synergy Farm Health, leaving Southfield Veterinary Centre to develop as a dedicated small animal practice with four vets sharing 83 years experience between them and specialist knowledge in a variety of areas.

With this in mind, we wanted to develop our skills further in diagnostic ultrasonography and have recently been fortunate enough to be donated the funds to purchase a new ultrasound scanner. A very dear client of ours recently had to say good bye to his much loved Pointer, Jack and in his memory has given us a hospital quality scanner. This will be of tremendous benefit to many other pets in the future as it will enable us to have yet another diagnostic tool in our already extremely well equipped surgery.

Haydon Veterinary Group

AT HAYDON Veterinary Group we specialise in small animals only so you can be assured of our best care and attention for your pet at all times.

Every year many cats and dogs of all ages become seriously ill or die from infectious diseases which could have been prevented through vaccination.

Head Vet at Haydon Veterinary Group Doug Hathorn explains 'All unvaccinated dogs and cats are at risk and there is no specific cure for viral diseases. Unfortunately in recent years levels of vaccinations have decreased and we have consequently seen an increase locally in the number of animals we see with these kinds of diseases.'

We routinely vaccinate dogs against: Parvovirus, Leptospirosis, Distemper, Canine Viral Hepatitis and Parainfluenza Virus.

We routinely vaccinate cats against: Cat Flu, Feline Enteritis and Feline Leukaemia Virus.

We use the most up to date vaccine available and our vaccination protocols allow us to keep your pets fully protected whilst not over vaccinating for certain diseases.

Infectious Bronchitis (Kennel cough) is a highly infectious disease in dogs that can be caused by two different microorganisms. A vaccine which is given via the dog's nostrils provides immunity against this type of infectious Bronchitis for 12 months. We would recommend that you routinely vaccinate your dog against this type of Infectious bronchitis (kennel cough) if he is in contact with other dogs or boards in Kennels. We can do this at the same time as your dog's annual vaccination booster at a reduced cost.

In order to ensure that your dog has continued immunity against these major infectious diseases he will need a booster vaccination every year for the rest of his life. Our computerized record system allows us to send you a reminder shortly before the booster is due. The vet will also give your pet a full health check up at this time included in the cost of the booster.

Sherborne Turf

Sherborne Turf is a local company supplying trade and retail customers with quality seeded lawn turf and associated products. Grown without netting, the turf is harvested from our own fields surrounding the historic town of Sherborne, and delivered using our own fleet of delivery vehicles. Turf is cut to order, so you can be sure it is fresh, and being a local company, low 'turf miles' mean our product is green in more ways than one!

In addition to turf, we also supply a full range of topsoils, composts and mulches, available for delivery either loose or in dumpy bags. Top-dressing, loam, fertiliser and seeds are also stocked, along with landscape accessories such as rakes, biodegradable stakes, geo-textile membranes, sprinklers, irrigators and spinners.

For more detailed information on all of our products, why not visit our website www.sherborneturf.co.uk. It is packed with product descriptions, turf laying guidelines & technical advice, and even has an interactive calculator to work out the quantity of turf or topsoil required for a given area.

At Sherborne Turf, we always want our customers to be delighted with their purchase, and our after-sales service includes advice and assistance as required. All of the team have technical knowledge, and are contactable on 01935 850388 or freephone 0808 178 0870. Office hours are 8am to 6pm Monday to Friday, and Saturday mornings during busy periods.

Malabar Trading

THE ghudjieri in the photograph was woven to use in a tent by nomadic Uzbek people, it is just one of the rare and unusual pieces for sale in the shop.

Our new stock for winter has begun to arrive from India, including finely woven Kashmiri shawls, silk Gudri shawls and vintage cotton Gudri throws. 'Gudri' is the name of the very fine running stitch used to join two pieces of fabric together, back to back, to create a scarf or blanket often with vibrantly contrasting patterns on either side. We have had some of these gudri fabrics made into beautiful jackets by an expert Indian tailor.

We have also received a delivery of the ever popular Indian wool tweed waistcoats for men and women.

Add to this new block-printed quilts, bedspreads and tablecloths, organic cotton blouses, paisley blankets, shawls and exquisitely hand painted lampstands from Kashmir, and you will find plenty to brighten a long winter at Malabar Trading.

How would you and your family cope?

It is easy to bury your head in the sand and not contemplate the unthinkable but the reality is that a large proportion of families would be unable to manage financially if either one or two bread winners were unable to work for any period of time, were struck down by a serious illness or hardest to contemplate of all, were no longer with us.

With many companies looking to control costs contractual sick pay is on the decline in many sectors. There are currently 3 million people in the UK who have been signed off sick for more than 6 months. Many people are unaware of their company's policy on long term sickness and the vast majority of people are under insured for this eventuality whilst having inadequate savings to cover their loss of earnings. Indeed many people have policies that they believe to be sufficient for their needs but are not arranged as cost effectively as possible or have limited critical illness cover with exclusions for certain conditions.

It is also a sad statistic that 1:4 men and 1:5 women will be diagnosed with heart failure, stroke or cancer before the age of 65. Thankfully survival rates are higher than ever, however the long term effects can have a massive impact on lifestyle and ability to provide for your loved ones.

It is difficult to imagine these situations, your partners or your own mortality is positively painful to consider. But can you afford to ignore life's realities? The emotional side of any of these occurrences is impossible to protect against, however it costs nothing other than an hour of your time, to review your families financial protection, discuss your needs in a relaxed professional environment and get on with enjoying life, safe in the knowledge that you have done what you can to safe guard you and your family against the unthinkable.

Best of British!

Afternoon tea at the Old Tea House' 'Bring back the traditional English tea time!'

'Relax and make time for tea'.

This is how Country Living Magazine described this teahouse built in 1635. Afternoon tea bridges the divide between young and old, everyone from small children to grandparents enjoys teatime.

The Ritz is unbeatable for its high teas and ambience, but our wonderful tea house is right here on your doorstep in Dorchester waiting to embrace and delight you with the most wonderful home made scones and tea time treats.

Due to popular demand the proprietors of the Old Tea House Derek and Debbie Dalley have recently introduced a luxurious B&B room complete with a large lounge, four -poster bed and en-suite. As the building has particular historic value, with a Thomas Hardye connection and tunnels to the old court rooms, it has attracted guests and visitors from far and wide.

One of the favourite customer reviews that Mr and Mrs Dalley received;

"A mix between Faulty Towers and Acorn Antiques with a mixture of fairy dust."

Come along, relax, stay and enjoy one of Dorset's most beautiful and most haunted B&B and tea rooms. A warm welcome awaits you so don't hesitate to revive the great British tradition of high, afternoon and cream teas. Best of British!

'Idiot proof colour to light up your garden!'

The Potting Shed Garden & Wild Bird Care Shop in Hardye Arcade, Dorchester was born out of buying an old garden shop called The Conservatory almost five years ago.

The joint owner, Shaun Samways, has previously spent the last twenty five years working and managing garden centres around the South West of England and in Southern Ireland and was really keen to bring gardening back to the high street. There are vast numbers of people who just can't get to out-of-town garden centres but would still like access to the products they sell.

A combination of good customer service and a large range of useful, everyday gardening products along with some unusual and interesting products too provides a good gardening outlet for local people. The owners twenty five years experience is not going to be wasted either with plenty of friendly, free helpful knowledge on hand as well. The business is split into two halves, one being gardening and the other being Wild Bird Care. The owners' life long passion for wild birds started many years ago when feeding wild birds wasn't particularly fashionable. Last year the good people of Dorchester bought over 34,000 kilos of wild bird and over 4500 bird feeders of all shapes and sizes from The Potting Shed, which just goes to prove that a life long passion can bear fruit with perseverance. This season we have a fantastic range of Spring Flowering Bulbs giving you colour in garden rfom early January through until early summer.

The finest Indian cuisine at Rajpoot

RAJPOOT is one of the most exclusive and exciting indian restaurants, with pleasant surroundings and a long-standing local and international reputation for excellence. They offer a new and exciting culinary experience, all dishes are prepared with absolutely fresh, top quality ingredients which are blended with exotic, fragrant and pungent spices to produce a wider variety of subtle flavours and taste sensations.

The inspiration behind Rajpoot is to bring something new, fresh and vibrant onto the British Indian dining scene. The staff love to make people's day and believe they can do this by getting the food to speak to their customers.

Over the last eight years Rajpoot has grown and branched out too. We have three other restaurants, two in Salisbury - the famous "Anokaa" which is set in the heart of the City and the long established "Asia" restaurant which is on the edge of Salisbury - and "Chutneys" which is in Shaftesbury close to the famous Gold Hill.

With the restaurant Rajpoot have created an ambiance that will make you feel relaxed and welcome. Their experienced team from the front of house staff to the award winning chefs will offer you a unique dining experience.

The spices used in their dishes are very different. For starters, they are traditional and authentic. Rajpoot don't mix the spices or believe in playing with their dishes. What they believe in is giving diners good, traditional Indian food in a modern, contemporary environment.

This welcoming and comfortable restaurant is popular all week and it is always wise to book ahead and especially for the Wedneday night 'meal deal' of a two course meal for £7.50 a head. But be sure to treat yourself and your friends and family to a true banquet one evening where the choice, colour and decoration of the platters is breathtaking.

Opening times are: Seven days a week including bank holidays, Monday - Sunday, 12noon - 2.30pm and 5.30pm - 12pm.

JAZZ IN UPLYME

Church to host evening of jazz next Wednesday

UPLYME Church in Pound Lane will be holding an evening of Jazz with Clive Smith and his Arcadia Jazz Band next week. Clive stopped playing his trumpet for 30 years until he moved to Axminster; it all changed when he met Kathy Stobart – known as "the first lady of British Jazz" - and played tenor sax with the Humphrey Lyttelton Band.

The Arcadia Band formed in 1996 under Kathy's watchful eye. Pete Strange, Humphrey Lyttelton's arranger and trombone player, got to work on arrangements in the 'Humph' style.

The band was launched into orbit supporting greats like George Melly, Helen Shapiro, Marion Montgomery, Kenny Ball and, of course, Humphrey Lyttelton and his band.

Clive was overwhelmed in March 2009 when he was presented with Humphrey Lyttelton's trumpet mouthpiece.

The event takes place on Wednesday, October 20th from 7:30pm to 9.30pm. Admission is free and no ticket is required but a retiring collection will be taken at the end.

National Theatre Live comes to Bridport

IN ONE of National Theatre Live's first ventures beyond London, and the first collaboration with another company, Complicite's A Disappearing Number will be broadcast live from Plymouth's Theatre Royal on October 14th and screened live at The Electric Palace in Bridport.

National Theatre Live is a groundbreaking initiative to broadcast the best of British theatre to cinemas around the world.

Broadcasts will also feature interviews with artists and behind-the-scenes footage, allowing audiences to share in the acclaimed work the National Theatre produces.

A Disappearing Number weaves together the story of two love affairs, separated by a century and a continent. The first happens now. The second is set in 1914.

It tells of the heartbreaking collaboration between the greatest natural mathematician of the 20th century, Srinivasa Ramanujan, a penniless Brahmin from Madras in South India, and his British counterpart, the brilliant Cambridge don GH Hardy.

With a haunting original score by Nitin Sawhney, this piece of startling visual poetry from Simon McBurney is a compelling meditation on love, mathematics and the pain of exile in an age when we think we can belong anywhere and have everything.

The play has won many awards including the Olivier Award for Best New Play (2008), the Evening Standard Theatre Award for Best Play (2007) and The Critics' Circle Theatre Award for Best New Play (2007).

It opened in Plymouth in 2007 and has subsequently toured all over the world to New York, Mumbai, Hyderabad, Ann Arbor, Milan, Sydney, Barcelona and London.

Tickets for A Disappearing Number at the Electric Palace, plus the entire National Theatre Live season, are on sale now from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901.

Doors open at 6pm for a 7pm start. Tickets are on sale for £12.50 from Bridport TIC on 01308 424901.

Marge Piercy

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

"Life is the first gift, love is the second, and understanding the third."
Marge Piercy

I READ quite a lot of modern verse but I have to confess it is often more of a pain than a pleasure. Happily, however, there are many exceptions.

One of the outstanding contemporary poets in America is the novelist, poet and playwright, Marge Piercy. Born in Detroit in 1936 she was the first in her family to attend college, studying at the University of Michigan. Winning a Hopwood Award for Poetry and Fiction in 1957 enabled her to finish college and go on to obtain an M.A. from Northwestern University. Her first book of poems, Breaking Camp, was published in 1968 and has been followed by a dozen more.

If you are unacquainted with her work I would recommend you start with her 1977 collection, My Mother's Body. The title poem, which is sadly too long to fit into our little column, begins with her extraordinary account of her mother's death and ends with the verse below. The penultimate sentence, picked out here in bold, is the inscription my sisters and I chose to put on our own mother's gravestone.

This body is your body, ashes now
and roses, but alive in my eyes, my breasts,
my throat, my thighs. You run in me
a tang of salt in the creek waters of my blood, you sing in my mind like wine. What you did not dare in your life you dare in mine.

Marge Piercy's Jewishness is evident from the vocabulary she uses, and her relationship with her mother was as intimate as you would expect it to be.

Some of her most moving poems are the ones in which she talks about her mother, such as The Annuity and Unbuttoning.

The one that, for me, is the most powerful is Putting the Good Things Away. There isn't room here for all of its 17 quatrains but here are the final nine.

Putting the good things away

In the coffin she was beautiful
not because of the undertaker's
garish cosmetics but because that face at eighty was still her face at eighteen peering

over the drab long dress
of poverty, clutching a book.
Where did you read your dreams, Mother?

Because her expression softened
from the pucker of disappointment,
the grimace of swallowed rage,
she looked a white-haired girl.

The anger turned inward, the anger
turned inward, where could it go except to make pain?
It flowed into me with her milk.

Her anger annealed me.
I was dipped in the cauldron
of boiling rage and rose
a warrior and a witch

but still vulnerable
there where she held me.
She could always wound me
for she knew the secret places.

She could always touch me
for she knew the pressure
points of pleasure and pain.
Our minds were woven together.

I gave her presents and she hid
Them away, wrapped in plastic.
Too good, she said, too good.
I'm saving them. So after her death

I sort them, the ugly things
That were sufficient for every day and the pretty things for which no day of hers was ever good enough.

Classic Pinter at Bridport Arts Centre

■ A LANDMARK of 20th century theatre, The Caretaker has amused, shocked and fascinated audiences for 50 years and on October 22nd, Bridport Arts Centre welcomes London Classic Theatre to perform it as part of their continued Pinter celebrations.

The renowned London Classic Theatre company, now celebrating its 10th year on tour, have been receiving outstanding reviews for their restrained production of Pinter's study of loneliness and power games.

The story revolves around Davies (Nicholas Gasson), a vagrant who also goes under the name of Jenkins.

> "As far as I'm concerned, The Caretaker is funny, up to a point. Beyond that point, it ceases to be funny, and it was because of that point that I wrote it."
> -Harold Pinter

Down on his luck, he has been taken under the wing of Aston (Richard Stemp), a man who is psychologically damaged and who offers Davies a bed and a roof over his head.

The tension escalates when Aston's thuggish but articulate brother Mick (Nicholas Gadd) enters the fray.

A must-see for anyone with a love of theatre, tickets are still available priced £12 (£8 conc) from the box office on 01308 424204 or via online booking at www.bridportarts.com

THE CONFETTI MAKER

Frank Wurzinger's new solo show, The Confetti Maker, is a day in the life of a full-time confetti factory worker. Full of optimism, he pursues his profession: making confetti - cutting, perforating, shredding - all day, every day - but he has ambitions, dreams and fears far beyond the factory life – romance ... love ... family ... The Confetti maker is a highly visual piece, which combines slapstick, puppetry, absurd storytelling, improvisation, and of course, lots of small bits of paper, which are woven into a hilarious, yet poignant show.

JUSTIN BIEBER TO GET PUNK'D HOST JOB?

BIEBER TO HOST PUNK'D | Justin Bieber is set to be offered a deal to host a revival of MTV show Punk'd, according to reports.

The new series of the hidden camera show is expected to launch next year with original host Ashton Kutcher back as an executive producer.

MTV is said to be in the last stages of finalising a deal to bring back its signature series, Deadline and Vulture reported.

Punk'd ran for 69 episodes over four years before it was taken off air in 2007.

The show has played pranks on dozens of celebrities, including Justin Timberlake, Britney Spears, Katie Holmes and Matthew Perry.

Pop star Justin's recent forays into acting having included a guest stint on CSI and parts in Saturday Night Live skits.

GAMU DEPORTATION FIGHT | The lawyer representing X Factor reject Gamu Nhengu and her family has said she will appeal against plans to deport them.

The singer, who was booted off the show at the weekend, has been told she must return to her homeland of Zimbabwe after her mother's visa application was turned down.

But Frances Farrell said she was preparing to lodge an appeal to an immigration tribunal.

She said: "My client has lived here for eight years, always legally and on proper visas.

"I'm now certain there is grounds to put in an appeal."

Gamu and her family had been told they did not have a right of appeal and must leave the UK by their own accord or face deportation.

Her controversial axing from the X Factor last weekend caused a storm among viewers, with more than 240,000 fans signing up to a Facebook page called Gamu Should Have Got Through, in protest at judge Cheryl Cole's decision to leave Gamu out of the final 12.

Show bosses have already denied suggestions Cheryl was influenced by visa issues. A spokeswoman said: "We are supporting Gamu and her family during this difficult time."

Fans have also started a petition calling on the Government to "reconsider the deportation of Gamu Nhengu and her family". More than 1,300 people have signed it since it was set up yesterday.

The teenager's mother Nokuthula Ngazana had been allowed to stay in the UK while she studied at university, with Nhengu permitted to remain in the country as her dependant. But Ms Ngazana's application to remain in the country was turned down, with the UK Border Agency saying it did not "meet all of the conditions for approval".

MAD MEN TO START ON NEW SKY HD CHANNEL | Sky has secured the exclusive UK broadcast rights to critically acclaimed drama Mad Men.

The news comes as the launch of Sky Atlantic HD is also announced, a new entertainment channel that will provide an exclusive home to all of HBO's new series in the UK and Ireland.

Stuart Murphy, director of programmes said that Mad Men, which will air on Sky Atlantic HD from the series' fifth season next summer, "has developed into a pop culture phenomenon with an extremely passionate fan base".

He added: "The series' scale and ambition complements our strategy for producing and acquiring cinematic television that, in turn, complements our fantastic library of movies. Innovative, high-quality content is worth paying for and the captivating world of Sterling Cooper will undoubtedly resonate with Sky's customers."

The new channel will also exclusively air brand new HBO series including Martin Scorsese's Prohibition-era drama Boardwalk Empire; highly-anticipated fantasy drama Game Of Thrones; Treme, from David Simon, co-creator of The Wire; horse-racing drama Luck starring Dustin Hoffman; and Mildred Pierce, featuring Oscar winner Kate Winslet.

Sophie Turner Laing, Sky's managing director of entertainment said: "Sky Atlantic HD will be an extraordinary TV channel. It will have compulsive television that pushes creative boundaries and tells great stories.

"The addition of Sky Atlantic completes a fantastic portfolio of entertainment channels including Sky1 HD, Sky Arts, Living and Sky Movies. Together, our channels will bring customers high-quality programming that is worth paying for."

Walker rolls back the years

MONDAY is the busiest day of the week for me. With most of the week's sport to collate and post for the paper, the evening is often manic with me working well into the early hours of Tuesday morning in order to complete it, writes STUART BROOM.

I was gutted therefore to find that my favourite disc jockey of all time, Johnnie Walker MBE, was appearing at the Electric Palace last Monday in his touring chat show 'Musical Milestones', but for once I let my heart rule my head.

Hence I am writing this review well after midnight and I don't care; I had a wonderfully relaxed evening in his company.

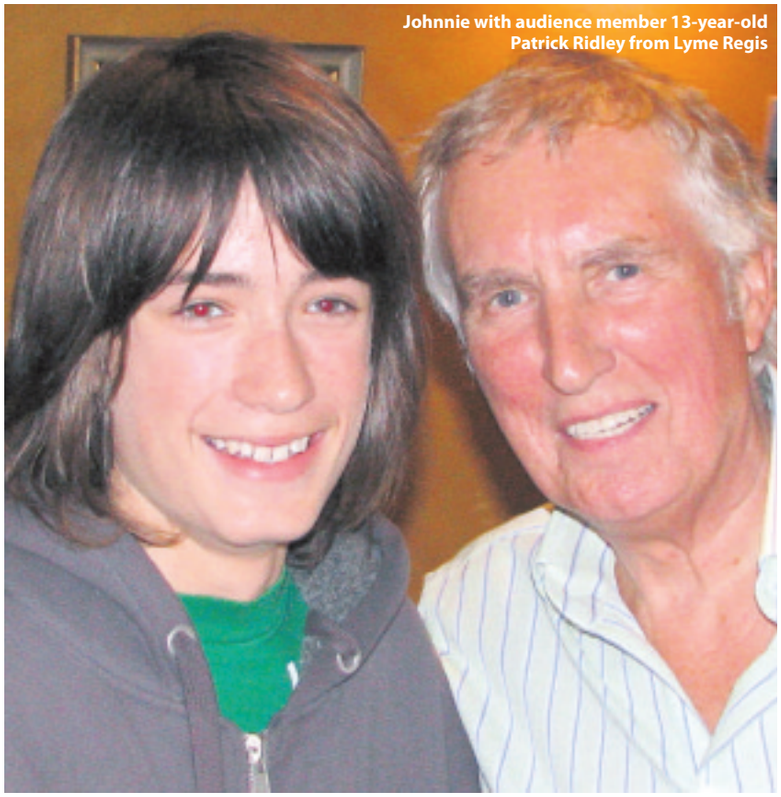
Walker has always been a favourite of mine from Radio Caroline days in the mid-Sixties, and his natural progression from those rebellious days as an exile from his own country riding the North Sea, to the suave, distinguished Radio 2 broadcaster of today came through in his two hour long chat show to an audience made up mainly as one would expect of those reaching retirement.

That is except a few, and among them 13-year-old Patrick Ridley from Lyme Regis. He was there sat in the front row with his mum Shane. Walker noticing him asked if he had been dragged along by his mum under protest.

Nothing of the sort he declared, he liked his music, and there was a special cheer from him when the DJ made reference to and played a piece of Eagles music.

Standing on stage in front of a packed audience seemed the most natural thing for the 65-year-old former independent Solihull School pupil, who as he said at the end of the show, was now relishing the opportunity of addressing a crowd having spent most of his life in a little box surrounded by records.

He had the audience eating from his hand as he reminisced about his early days growing up, before giving up the opportunity of being a successful car salesman to become a pirate radio disc jockey.



Johnnie with audience member 13-year-old Patrick Ridley from Lyme Regis

Having switched to Radio Caroline from his original job on Radio England, he and two colleagues defied Harold Wilson's governments attempt to close them down.

Unable to legally stop the boat from broadcasting as it was outside UK waters, they made it illegal for British citizens to work on it, but the three defied the ban which effectively made them exiles and liable to two years in prison if they returned to UK shores.

When Caroline finally ran out of money, Walker joined Radio 1 in 1969 and worked for them for seven years before quitting over a row with the station's producers over being forced to play music he did not particularly like.

He had the audience singing along almost karaoke style as he played snatches of music that meant something to him throughout his career, including the first record he ever heard on an old wind-up record player his father brought home: 'Teddy Bears Picnic'.

He spoke of the sadness of his marriage breaking up after he moved to America after quitting the Beeb, and having to sleep in a truck cab with his son Sam because he had no money.

He recalled flirting with the BBC, both Radio 1 and them Radio 2 over the next 30 years, and at his lowest ebb becoming embroiled in drugs in 1999.

However he recovered from this to find happiness with his second wife Tiggy whom he married in 2002, and talked about their friendship with David and Sadie Miles of the Anchor Inn at Seatown, where they spent their honeymoon night.

The slide show that accompanied his commentary and music showed several facets of his life including a number of him in recovery from Hodgkin's lymphoma cancer which was diagnosed in 2003 and for which he has been in remission now for five years.

Such was Walker's persona that the evening had a feel of talking over a drink down at the pub as he also answered audience questions as he entertained in the second half.

Despite several kicks in both his working and personal life, Johnnie Walker has defied them all to prevail as one of the nicest people you could want to meet and appeared content. Certainly the audience were and he continues to be a legend to me.

● I was lucky to get an interview with Johnnie prior to him appearing on stage at the Electric Palace which you can read in next week's paper.

TAKE A TRIP DOWN THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER

AXMINSTER Operatic Society are tackling one of their biggest and spectacular of shows, Show Boat, next month.

This show is generally regarded as one of the all time greats, with beautiful music, spectacular costumes and diverse characters, the story starting off in the 1880s and finishing around the 1920s .

There is comedy and drama, from the sweetness and light of Magnolia Hawkes, leading lady and singer, to Julie LaVerne, the former showboat singer - rejected by a bigoted and prejudicial society as it was in the early 1900s in deep south Mississippi, and whose life was wasted away by alcoholism and tragedy.

There are unforgettable songs, like 'Bill', 'Can't Help Loving Dat Man' and, of course, the well known and haunting 'Old Man River'.

Show Boat will be produced by Nick Lawrence, extremely respected and well known throughout the South West, and musically directed by Rob Preece who has been the company's musical director for many years.

Show Boat is on at Axminster Guildhall from November 17th to 20th at 7.30 pm with a matinee on the Saturday at 2.30 pm.

Tickets are on sale from The Archway Bookshop in person or by calling 01297 33595.

EASY STARS AT THE PALACE

MODERN day reggae legends the Easy Star All Stars are in Bridport this Saturday night (October 16th).

It was back in 2003 an album appeared that stunned the music scene by its sheer audacity. Entitled Dub Side of the Moon, it was the band's debut LP - the entire Pink Floyd album Dark Side of the Moon played reggae or dub style by the top session musicians in those musical genres.

Since then other gems have appeared including Radiodread and Easy Star's Lonely Hearts Dub Band, a re-interpretation of The Beatles famed Sgt Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band.

Dub Side of the Moon has sold over 300,000 copies so far, and spent seven years in Billboard's Reggae Chart.

Radiodread spent two years in the same chart and earned praise from Radiohead themselves.

Originally put together by Michael Goldwasser, Eric Smith and Lem Oppen¬heimer, Easy Stars operate as a musical collective with the names of past and present reading like a Who's Who of the New York reggae, ska, dub and jazz scenes.

The band has also established itself as one of the premier reggae bands in the world, playing 125 concerts in six different continents during 2009.

Combining musical versatility, instrumental prowess, beautiful vocal harmonies and a superb rhythm section, the Easy Star All-Stars are regarded as one of the top international reggae acts on record and in person.

Tickets for their show at Bridport's Electric Palace on Saturday are £15 each, and available by calling the box office on 01308 424901.

CHEDINGTON, NR BEAMINSTER DT8 3HY
01935 891244

SITUATED on the edge of Chedington village, near South Perrott, Winyard's Gap Inn commands one of the finest views in the West Country.

Surrounded by National Trust property the area offers many delightful walks in an unspoilt rural area.

The inn offers a traditional menu with a modern twist placing emphasis on using fresh, seasonal and local produce where possible.

Dining is available in the stylish restaurant or alfresco in the beautiful beer garden. Fine wines and real ales are also available in this outstanding pub.

Tucked beneath an ancient earthwork surrounded by rolling hills, the Winyard's Gap Inn flaunts majestic beauty alongside a hidden history that harbours the many secrets and scandals of Medieval times.

Not only did King Charles I walk these very grounds as he led his troops though the Gap in 1644, but other historical figures and personalities such as Henry Fielding (author of Tom Jones and Amelia), Mary Squires and Suzanne Wells all have an association with this place.

Learn of their alluring stories as you peruse the menu and gaze out of large bay windows onto the beautiful countryside views

And the splendour doesn't disappear at the front door; inside is a quaint little bar and elegant restaurant, boasting a sense of sophistication with a traditional edge.

Rustic furniture and soft candlelight create an intimate setting where you'll get that home-from-home feel, and in the bar you may be lucky enough to be greeted by the house pet, Daisy the St Bernard; arguably this dog alone makes a visit worthwhile.

In sync with the decor, the menu is traditional with a modern twist, placing emphasis on using fresh, seasonal and local produce where possible.

Tasty starters include the baked goat's cheese puff with mushroom duxelle and red onion jam, as well as the half-pint of shell-on prawns with seafood sauce for those who enjoy dishes from the deep.

As for the mains, the 12oz West Country rump steak with plum tomatoes, garlic mushrooms and chunky chips is particularly sensational, alongside the pan-fried salmon with potato cake, parmesan, crayfish and vanilla beurre blanc.

And because there's always room for dessert, the sweet menu is a thing of wonder too. Enjoy the 'choffee' nut meringue served with cream – a very popular treat amongst the regulars.

The Baileys bread-and-butter pudding is also fantastic, taking you back to those childhood days of simple home cooking.

The setting is beautiful, the atmosphere relaxed, and the food, sensational. What more could you want?

Millions of friends, but no one like him

THE Social Network [15] tells the surprising and controversial story behind the world's most popular social networking tool, Facebook.

On a fall night in 2003, Harvard undergrad and computer programming genius Mark Zuckerberg (played by Jesse Eisenberg) sits down at his computer and heatedly begins working on a new idea. In a fury of blogging and programming, what begins in his dorm room soon becomes a global social network and a revolution in communication. A mere six years and 500 million friends later, Mark Zuckerberg is the youngest billionaire in history... but for this entrepreneur, success leads to both personal and legal complications.

Released Friday, October 15th

500 MILLION FRIENDS | Justin Timberlake and Jesse Eisenberg in The Social Network

UNIVERSAL'S hilarious first foray into 3D animated film Despicable Me [PG] sees voice roles from Steve Carell, Jason Segel, Russell Brand and Julie Andrews, as three little girls try to stop one evil man's plans.

In a happy suburban neighborhood surrounded by white picket fences with flowering rose bushes, sits a black house with a dead lawn. Unbeknownst to the neighbors, hidden beneath this home is a vast secret hideout. Surrounded by a small army of minions, we discover Gru (voiced by Steve Carell), planning the biggest heist in the history of the world. He is going to steal the moon. (Yes, the moon!)

Gru delights in all things wicked. Armed with his arsenal of shrink rays, freeze rays, and battle-ready vehicles for land and air, he vanquishes all who stand in his way. Until the day he encounters the immense will of three little orphaned girls who look at him and see something that no one else has ever seen: a potential Dad. The world's greatest villain has just met his greatest challenge: three little girls named Margo, Edith and Agnes.

Satellite success

ON SATURDAY, October an excited audience arrived at Bridport's Electric Palace to be the first to experience a screening from the Metropolitan Opera, live from New York.

As the lights in the Palace dimmed, we were welcomed by Peter Gelb, General Manager of the Met.

His warm introduction took place live from inside the Met auditorium and as the audience on screen settled in their seats, so did we, immediately unifying the two theatre spaces and creating the atmosphere of one united audience.

From the stunning opening scene in which the three Rhinemaidens, suspended by ropes, swim around in mid-air, releasing columns of bubbles from their mouths, the audience was spellbound by director Robert Lepage's breathtaking new production.

The Met: Live in HD, a series of live performance transmissions to cinemas, has sold nearly five million tickets since its inception in December 2006.

The Electric Palace has taken a brave step with the screenings, further showing its commitment to bring culture to a local audience in a rural area.

The planning applications and raising of funds for the bespoke satellite dish has taken 15 months of hard work and dedication.

The live screenings of opera and theatre may be becoming common place in cities and at large cinema chains, but for an independent arts organisation that does not receive any government funding, this is truly a remarkable achievement.

Enjoy a meal at Fairwater Head Hotel's Greenfields Restaurant

THE Fairwater Head Hotel was bought by Adam and Carrie Southwell three years ago and since then they have carried out a major refurbishment throughout the hotel.

The hotel is situated overlooking the delightful Axe Valley and is easily reached from Lyme Regis, Chard, Honiton, Axminster and Bridport. Part of the revamp included the restaurant creating the new Greenfields Brazzerie.

The revamped, informal Brazzerie is light and airy, but has retained its warm and welcoming ambience with modern and tasteful furnishings.

Although part of the hotel it is run as a separate restaurant attracting non residents as well as those staying at the hotel. It's priced at a level to appeal to every pocket and is used by everyday diners as well as those looking for a special occasion.

The award winning Chefs use a seasonal selection of fresh local ingredients concentrating on mouth watering flavours combined with beautiful presentation.

The Brazzerie's fine produce includes freshly caught Dorset fish and seafood such as crab, hake and scallops. Also Devon beef, Dartmoor lamb and a superb west country cheese board.

The high standard of cooking and the friendly attentive service spreads right through to the traditional Sunday roast-something that people are beginning to travel miles to sample!

The Greenfields Brazzerie is open seven nights a week for dinner and Wednesday to Sunday for lunch. The innovative and imaginative cuisine is a joy not to be missed.

Spacious and luxury apartment

MD Martin Diplock

CORAM Manor is an impressive Victorian residence (originally a rectory). First built in 1832 and extended in 1889 with substantial stone walls beneath a tiled roof and many attractive architectural features. In about 2002 the property was converted to 7 luxury apartments.

The property occupies an elevated location set well back from the Sidmouth Road just to the west of the town centre only about ¼ mile from the historic Cobb Harbour, the seafront and shops.

No. 7 occupies the whole of the top (second) floor and provides unusually spacious accommodation of considerable character with exposed roof trusses and lots of interesting nook and crannies. This particular apartment also has a detached double garage.

A feature of No. 7 is the stunning view of the sea and West Dorset coastline from Lyme to Portland.

Lyme Regis is a picturesque coastal town noted for its many character buildings, centuries old Cobb Harbour and unspoilt surrounding countryside. The town centre provides good shopping facilities for day to day needs and the larger centres of Taunton and Exeter are both about 28 miles away. There is a main line railway station at Axminster (6 miles inland). In Lyme Regis there is also a sailing club, bowls, golf course, theatre, cinema and numerous local societies.

The town is situated on the beautiful and unspoilt Devon and Dorset 'Jurassic Coast' awarded World Heritage Site status by UNESCO in December 2001.

Accommodation comprises: Communal Porch and Reception Hall, Apartment 7 is on the second floor and comprises:- Entrance Lobby off first floor landing with stairs to second floor landing. Superb 30' Living Room, 26' fitted Kitchen/Dining Room. 2 Bedrooms. 2 Bathrooms/W.c. Gas central heating and double glazing. Outside: Communal garden area with a secluded patio overlooking the sea. We are equally passionate about property and people, that's why our business is growing from its solid foundations of trust, openness and sincerity. Based on our relationship with our customers and an excellent knowledge of the local area we are confident we can find the right home for you.

The Lyme Bay area is a truly unspoilt part of our country; its character and beauty is undeniable. We have more properties coming onto the market in the towns and villages of West Dorset and East Devon, with some excellent launch offers available.

Why don't you give us a call or, better still, stop by and meet (the) Frank (team). We have a living room in our office so we're always ready to entertain. Whilst we have a chat over a nice hot tea and some local cake you can find out if we can help you buy or sell your property the 'frank way'.

At frank, we see it your way.

Honda enhances Civic styling for 2011

THE British-built Honda Civic has been given a refresh with a range of cosmetic enhancements for 2011.

The updates and additions are designed to enhance the striking appearance and passenger comfort of the car at no extra cost to the customer.

Production for the 2011 Honda Civic begins at the Swindon manufacturing plant in November 2010 with prices starting from £13,995 for the 1.4 Type S.

Exterior updates

Eyes are immediately drawn to the new front grille, which has taken inspiration from the iconic 'Type R' model, creating a smarter, more upmarket face for the popular hatchback.

Exterior updates also include a range of new alloy wheels now fitted as standard, with individual designs and sizes dependent on the variant chosen. New 16-inch rims feature on the Civic five-door range in 1.4-litre SE and Si, plus 1.8-litre SE trim levels. While the five-door 1.8-litre Si now wears a fresh set of 17-inch boots.

On the sports-inspired Type S model, the 1.4-litre Civic now benefits from colour-coded sideskirts and revised 16-inch alloys. The other news is a dynamic new exterior colour - Ionized Bronze, which is available across the Civic range.

Interior comfort

Keeping the driver and passenger comfortable is also part of the 2011 Model Year upgrade package, with a series of new interior finishes. SE and ES trim gets half fabric and luxurious Alcantara, while Si is now half leather and Alcantara with heated front seats.

Electric vehicle drivers enjoy increased confidence and low 'refuelling' costs

SIX MONTHS into a year-long trial, CABLED (Coventry and Birmingham Low Emission Demonstrators) drivers are travelling more miles, more frequently and are making longer journeys - indicating increased confidence and notably reduced range anxiety.

Cost conscious prospective EV drivers may also be interested to learn that the cost for those recharging at home has been on average between just 25p and £1 per day.

CABLED is the largest of eight public trials taking place in the UK as part of The Technology Strategy Board's £25m Ultra Low Carbon demonstrator programme, with the West Midlands consortium contributing 110 of the 350 vehicles trialled on the UKs roads.

The data, analysed by Aston University combines and compares the behaviour patterns of 25 Mitsubishi i-MiEV drivers over two consecutive quarters. Brian Price, Aston University comments: "Collecting real-world usage of electric vehicles (EV) through our satellite mapping and analysis has been essential in understanding actual demands and requirements of EV vehicles for consumers. The journey data gathered is already showing that the current generation of ultra-low carbon vehicles are cheap to run as well as being comparable to petrol & diesel vehicles for speed, ease of use and daily journey distance; using less than 30% of total charge in typical daily use. The next phase of the study will allow us to map out an optimal charging point network to further extend range and improve the convenience of electric cars.

Project Leader Neil Butcher from the co-ordinating partner Arup explains the data presents a positive outlook for the mass take-up of EVs. "The phenomenon known as 'range anxiety' - concern about battery life when undertaking long journeys - is falling as drivers become more familiar with their vehicles. The low costs of 'refuelling' in relatively short periods of time reinforce this. While there are technical challenges ahead - extending vehicle range and preparing for increased demands on the national grid - our results show that even current vehicles are more than capable of meeting users' day-to-day needs."

PERRY STREET LEAGUE WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

BEAMINSTER END LYME RUN

10-man Waytown battle back for win

MATCH WINNER | Sam Crocker headed Beaminster to victory over old rivals Lyme Regis.

EXPLOSIVE RETURN | Gavin Fowler returned to action with four goals in Uplyme's 6-3 win over Chard Rangers.

ACCOUNT OPENED | Jack Durrant (16) scored his first and second goals for Lyme Regis

Division One Cup - quarter finals
Netherbury 4 Winsham Utd 0
LAST season's runners-up Netherbury booked their place in the semi-finals with a composed performance against a physical Winsham side who gave the Ambers a buffeting in the league three weeks ago.

There was no repeat on Saturday with Tim Hussey pouncing with just seconds on the clock to maintain his record of scoring in every game this season.

The lead was doubled before the break when John Kingston smashed home a 30-yarder to open his account for Netherbury.

Stand-in keeper James Sayers made a good save to protect his clean sheet before Hussey struck again to make the game safe.

Midfielder Pete Lawrence rounded things off near the end as he too scored for the first time in an Amber shirt.

Netherbury manager picked out centre-back Ryan Gay as his star man.

Thorncombe 1 Lyme Regis Res 2
LYME Regis Reserves were another were another side to exact some revenge for a recent league defeat as they turned over Thorncombe at Horseshoe Lane.

Things stated well for the Thorns who had strong claims for a penalty waved away by veteran referee Bob Hall.

The hosts did take the lead in the 25th minute when John Allan rose to head home Lee Fisher's corner.

But The Seasiders battled back and a period of sustained possession was rewarded when midfielder Gareth Fooks fired home from distance.

The second-half was pretty even and the match appeared to be heading for extra-time when Lyme player-manager Gerard Hitchcock scrambled the all-important winner from close range.

Man-of-the-match for the visitors was Harvey Brimicombe with Russ Gage taking the Thorns' plaudits.

PREMIER
Combe Res 1 Merriott Rovers 2
MERRIOTT Rovers moved up to second with a 2-1 win at Slades Cross over struggling Combe Reserves.

Haydn Smith and Matt Bullock netted for the visitors with Garry Warren replying.

Beaminster 1 Lyme Regis 0
LYME Regis' two-year unbeaten away record was ended by old rivals Beaminster in a tense match before a crowd of in excess of 100 at the Memorial Ground.

The hosts had the best of the opening exchanges without creating too many clear-cut opportunities. At the other end Joe Bond headed over when unmarked at the far post as Lyme gradually came back into the game. Ironically, the winner came with the Seasiders enjoying their best spell of the first-half. Winger Murray Legg, who tormented Joel Gostling, playing in an unfamiliar left-back role, drilled a cross-field pass to pick out Dean Newman who in return crossed for Sam Crocker to head past the despairing dive of Ashley Caddy.

Dom Rowe headed narrowly over just before the break but the Rainbows trooped off in control of the match.

The lead was nearly doubled within seconds of the restart when Newman beat Caddy but struck the foot of the upright with a low drive.

Newman did find the net on the hour but Beaminster celebrations were cut short by an offside flag.

Lyme almost got back on terms soon after from an unlikely source when Dan Taylor's back header had goalkeeper Adam Herring desperately clawing the ball away.

Seasiders manager Robin Townsend shuffled his pack and scrapped an unfamiliar 4-4-2 line-up to attempt to provide more support for lone raider Bond. And the move worked with Lyme pushing hard for a leveler. At the other end Caddy did well to deny Newman.

But, at referee Richard Allen's final whistle, there was no denying Beaminster the much-deserved three points. Sean Annetts' side were better in most areas with too many Lyme players failing to cope with playing out of their normal positions.

South Petherton 6 Perry Street 3
SOUTH Petherton extended their lead at the top of the league to three points despite a woeful first 45 that manager Gordy Childs described as "Dire". Pethy did in fact hold a slender 2-1 lead at this point but Street kept plugging away and were level at 2-2 and 3-3 before the hosts moved up through the gears to, in the end, win comfortably.

Jon Hayter (3), Marcus Alexander (2) and Danny Rendall scored for the winners.

DIVISION ONE
Perry Street Res 4 Charmouth 0
PERRY Street proved too strong for Charmouth despite having to call-up veterans Trevor Priddle and Robbie Stead.

The Robins were half way to their first clean sheet for 18 months at the turnaround but the hosts had too much class after the break and cruised home with goals from Kev Rowson (2), Lee Seymour and Man-of-the-Match Jamie Best.

DIVISION TWO
Shepton Beau 2 Beaminster Res 2
BEAMINSTER Reserves returned from Brimgrove Lane, one of the most difficult places to visit, with a point – but it could so easily have been three.

Shepton haven't lost a league game on their home turf in a year but a Lee Gillard double, the second a superb swivel and shot on the turn, looked to have given Robin Ormsby's in-form team another crucial win.

But goals from John Spendlowe and Kris Hastings both found the net in the last six minutes to protect the Shepton record.

Pymore 2 South Petherton Res 0
A Man-of-the-Match performance from goalkeeper Charlie Youngs resulted in Pymore recording their first clean sheet in 20 outings and South Petherton reserves making the long trek home empty handed after a 2-0 defeat.

Goals from winger Cameron Murless, his first for the club, and Alex Goodrick in the last 12 minutes decided the result. Top performer for the hosts was fullback Phil Ackerman.

Uplyme 6 Chard Rangers 3
UPLYME remain well placed to mount a promotion push after a Gavin Fowler inspired win over bottom of the table Chard Rangers who went down to their fourth straight defeat.

Fowler, who has been on the sideline for most of the season in his new role as joint manager, led the line in familiar style with a first-half hat-trick as Uplyme eased home despite missing several regulars.

Fowler went on to add a fourth in the second-half with Adam Neale and Alex Cottle chipping-in with singles.

Cottle and Jack Chapple were Fowler's colleague Roger Smart's pick of the winners.

DIVISION THREE
Drimpton 1 Millwey Rise Res 1
STRIKER Sam Dibling scored a second-half penalty after he himself had been fouled to salvage a point from Millwey Rise Reserves at Drimpton who remain winless this season.

Winsham Res 2 Lyme Bantams 4
A GOOD all-round team performance saw Lyme Regis Bantams secure their first win of the season at Bakers Field.

Ashley Walkey, a recent signing from Charmouth, drilled home the opener in the 20th minute before the hosts responded. The young Bantams didn't panic and restored their lead five minutes before the break when Jamie Jones tapped in from close range.

Jack Durrant gave Lyme some breathing space midway through the second period after substitute Patryk Skibinski had nodded down Rhys Brown's deep cross.

Winsham pulled one back soon after but Durrant struck again latching on to a incisive through ball from Rory Holmes.

Top performer for the Seasiders was centre-back Rhys Paterson.

DIVISION FOUR
Chard Rang Res 2 Waytown Hounds 3
TEN Man Waytown Houndscame back from 2-1 down to snatch all three points with the last kick of the game.

Danny Dunford put the Hounds ahead but the Rangers leveled soon after and took the lead from the penalty spot before the break following an incident that resulted in referee Brendan Luesley wave a red card at teenage goalkeeper Bill Fleet.

Dunford took over between the sticks and did a good job for the remaining 55 minutes.

The Hounds regrouped and Ethan Guppy drilled a 20-yarder into the top corner to equalise, and with seconds remaining Rangers hopes of a first point of the season were ended when substitute Matt Read fired home from the penalty spot after Tom Rutland had been felled.

Hounds manager Mark Hughes selected Dunford and Rutland as his star men.

Uplyme CC appoint Derek as new President

LONG-SERVING player and committee member Derek Wellman was appointed Club President at Uplyme & Lyme Regis Cricket Club's annual meeting held at the club's headquaters last Thursday.

Wellman (45), who has played for the club for more than 30-years, replaces previous incumbant Andy Mason who stood down from the position two weeks ago.

Another change sees veteran off-spinner Brian Rattenbury take the reins as captain of the 2nd XI. Rattenbury replaces his nephew Ally who spent the whole of last season in the 1st XI.

There was some doubt as to whether to club would continue to run two Saturday teams in the Devon League as a lack of players had resulted in several 'non-cricketers' being drafted in at the 11th hour for some away matches.

But, after a vote of members in attendance, it was decided to continue to run the 2nd XI as relegation back down to the regionalised Division D would mean less travelling.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

WITH KEITH JENKIN

Weymouth hit form and Oaks are felled

WEYMOUTH 38pts OAKMEDIANS 2nd Nil
AFTER what has been a rather stuttering start to their league season, during which time they tended not to turn superiority into points, Weymouth came good in no uncertain terms on Saturday, running out comfortable winners against a handy Oakmedians second string.

It all started with an excellent performance by their back row who were at the centre of most things good, and went on from there.

They led by 17-0 at the halfway stage, thanks to tries from Joe Gibson and Richard Polly, both of which were converted by Ryan Lewendon, who also kicked a penalty goal and, after the break, they stretched away.

Substitute, speedy winger Will Quick, celebrated his return from injury by grabbing two second half touchdowns. Brother Julian, prominent throughout at number eight, added another, and all three were goaled by Lewendon to complete the scoring and to take his side out of sight by the whistle for no side.

WEYMOUTH 2nd 36pts BLANDFORD 2nd 5pts
THE Weymouth second side continued its run of success by notching an equally comfortable win against its Blandford counterparts after a game, the pattern of which was rather similar to that of the Weymouth first side. Having led 12-0 at the halfway stage, they then proceeded to take charge and to turn their superiority into points in no uncertain terms.

Tom Bell and Ian Maccornachie scored two tries apiece. Dave Allen scored another and Tim Comben completed the try list.

Skipper Nathan Allen kicked three conversions to complete the scoring.

BLANDFORD U15 5pts WEYMOUTH 25pts
IN spite of a gusting wind that made both handling, place kicking and throwing in, less than straightforward, both side played some good open rugby.

The visitors took a lead that they were never to relinquish when flanker Tom Glynn was well up to gather a loose ball close to the home line and touch down. They extended their lead in short order when influential centre, Hamish Jeffcott got over for the first of his brace.

The home side did get a try back but never really threatened as further tries, by Bezzant and Man-of-the-Match, lock forward Lloyd Hatton who ran strongly to set up centre Jake Guilford's try, after his side had gone through the phases.

The home side did keep going until the end but never really got within touching distance as good play by the Parkinsons, Gareth playing in the middle of the front row, and Charlie, carrying and tackling well, served to keep their side on top.

BRIDPORT 26pts DEVIZES 38pts
TO the neutral spectator this would have rated as a good game of rugby, with the lead changing hands and several tries being scored.

The home camp too will take a fair bit from the performance of their side for, although not threatening to take the result after the break, they competed until the end and were justly rewarded with a bonus point.

In fact it was Bridport who took the lead as early as the first minute with an Idris Croft penalty goal, and, although this was cancelled out by a similar effort from the visitors' place kicker after some ten minutes play, the home side regained the lead immediately.

They turned over possession from the restart and sent the ball wide, putting winger Mike Pibworth into space and he showed his pace to run in from halfway.

The try remained unconverted and Devizes reduced the arrears with a second penalty goal around the end of the first quarter. They followed this with a couple of unconverted tries in quick succession, and the home followers would probably, at this juncture, been saying "Oh No! Not again!" The flood gates remained shut however and Bridport got the next score, another Croft penalty.

They were however, made to pay for having a man sent to the bin immediately before the interval when the visitors scored two more unconverted tries, thus making the result virtually safe.

Bridport had given away far too many penalties in the first period, and had lost the territorial battle as a result. This aspect of their play improved after the break, but Devizes moved further ahead via the boot in the early minutes of the second-half.

Bridport were still competing however and winger Ewart got over for their second unconverted try of the afternoon on the hour to narrow the gap, only for Devizes to stretch away with a converted effort of their own on the hour. Bridport would have ended the day pleased with the way that they had kept going throughout the final quarter. Dave Bullock got over in the corner after a quickly taken tapped penalty, and scrum-half Nick Hill also touched down after he had been put into space by his number eight at a five yard scrum.

These tries, unconverted though they were, did give the final score line respectability, and secured a losing bonus point, although they did not threaten the result.

The Bridport second side will also take some comfort from defeat after going down to Puddletown by two tries to one as the final score line of 14-5 indicates.

BRADFORD ON AVON Nil DORCHESTER 58pts
DORCHESTER travelled to the club which currently lie at the bottom of the Southern Counties League (South) and returned with what was a comfortably attained win.

It was far from being a stroll in the pack however for the home pack competed throughout and made their opponents work for their scores. Dorchester won the territorial game hands down and their first try came after 15 minutes play. It was scored by Bennett who scampered through a gap around the fringes of a ruck in the home twenty two. A pushover try, claimed by Mitchell followed, and further first half touchdowns by Harvey, Read and Spensley, saw the bonus point in the back by the change round.

The second-half was laced with injuries, most of them incurred by the home side and these interfered with the flow of the game and were certainly not to the advantage of Dorchester.

They followed their five first-half tries with five more however; touched down by Harvey, Read , Pengelly, Bament and Newsam. Four conversions were added along the way and completed what was, both a comfortable win, and a very worthwhile workout.

It was not all sweetness and light for the Dorchester club at the weekend however, with their second side going down by 15-5 at Fordingbridge seconds and their thirds also losing, at Oakmedians thirds, by 30-19.

PREVIEW
THE Dorset & Wilts contingent take a break from league rugby on Saturday next and most are engaged in cup competitions.

DORCHESTER are the exception and have no game at either first or second team level, while their thirds travel to take on the Young Offenders Institution.

BRIDPORT have a bit of a test with the visit of NORTH DORSET who while not being in the top flight of the Southern Counties Division at the moment, have certainly started their campaign better than the Brewery Field side.

Bridport are showing signs of putting their early season problems behind them but will still have to raise their game by a notch or two if they are to win this one, home advantage notwithstanding.

WEYMOUTH, although they have to travel, have what is, on paper anyway, the easier game. They take the road to SUTTON BENGER who lie in the mid table of the Dorset & Wilts league Division One (North). Weymouth should be capable of winning this one for they seem to be coming good after a slow start to their campaign. They should take nothing for granted however.

As to the second sides, both have games that they could win. The Bridport second side make the considerable journey to play Corsham seconds, a side who are currently in the bottom half of the Dorset & Wilts League Division Two (North). It may well be that the journey will win the game in this instance, but Bridport certainly have a chance of progressing to the next round.

The same can be said of Weymouth second's chances. They reside near the top of division three while their visitors, Marlborough seconds lie near the foot of the Northern section of division two. Weymouth seem to be playing with considerable confidence at the moment and it should not be beyond them to make home advantage tell.

Youngsters excel at Swimming gala

THE Autumn Steps Gala at West Dorset Swimming Club was the first opportunity of the new swimming year for the younger club members to compete against each other and gain new personal best times. Club members from Minnows, Steps 1 and Steps 2 met at Thomas Hardye Leisure Centre.

All their hard work in training paid off with 57 personal best times registered together with 45 times recorded for the first time. Most notable amongst the boys was 7-year-old Oliver Fairman who improved his best times in the 50m backstroke, 50m breaststroke and 50m freestyle each by between six and eight seconds against times recorded only two months ago. For the girls Phoebe Kelman-Johns reduced her personal best in the 25m backstroke by over 15 seconds, closely followed by India Furness who improved her best time in the 25m freestyle by just over 14 seconds.

Competition for places was high throughout the gala, particularly in the Steps 2 category. George Kelman-Johns and Alex Felton had three closely fought races with Kelman-Johns winning two, the 50m backstroke by one hundredth of a second and the 50m freestyle, whilst Felton got his revenge in the 25m butterfly. Kelman-Johns also won the 50m breaststroke with Daniel Warland swimming well to earn second place.

◆ Some of the Minnows boys

In the girls Steps 2 the honours were shared between five girls, with Eadie Ayres winning the 50m freestyle and the 25m butterfly, the latter in a dead heat with Olivia Cregg, who also swam well to come second in the 50m breaststroke being beaten by a confident swim from Sofia Voss. Voss also came third in the 50m backstroke and freestyle. Erin Lee won the 50m backstroke, following in the footsteps of her older sister who previously won this event, and als came third in the 50m breaststroke.

Three boys shared the podium in Steps 1 with Oliver Davies winning the 25m backstroke and finishing second in the 25m freestyle and breaststroke, whilst Jack Hayward won the 25m freestyle and was second in the 25m backstroke. Swimming in his first gala, George Green won the 25m breaststroke and came third in the 25m backstroke and freestyle.

Steps 1 girls saw Millie Spence, in her first gala, win the 25m freestyle and butterfly and come second in the 25m backstroke. Not to be outdone Chloe Cake won the 25m backstroke, came second in the 25m freestyle and third in the breaststroke. Ava Wickham dominated the 25m breaststroke to win beating Phoebe Kelman-Johns into second place.

The Minnows category saw most swimmers competing in a gala for the first time. Gruff James started his first gala in the best possible way by winning his first event, the 25m backstroke, and later came third in the 25m freestyle. Shem Martin entering his second gala was rewarded with a first place in the 25m freestyle and second in backstroke.

Elliott Twigg and Luke Wheeler entering their first gala came second in the 25m freestyle and third in 25m backstroke respectively. The minnows girls saw Abbie Baker winning the 25m backstroke and Rosie Kirby the 25m freestyle.

Beaminster Ladies Hockey Club

YEOVIL & SHERBORNE 2 BEAMINSTER 1

THIS was a great display from a mainly young, inexperienced Beaminster side missing four of their regulars, three of whom were at the same wedding.

With midfielders Julia May and Emma Davies and defenders Jenny Clarke and Sarah Davies all missing, together with Jackie Gape who has started back at university, this was a much changed side from the previous week.

Ismay Byrne made her debut in goal allowing regular keeper Rachel Andrews a rare game outfield, and she was beaten once in the first half with a shot via the post .Beaminster played higher up the pitch after the break, putting pressure of the Yeovil defence, but conceded a second when a short corner was cleared only for it to be brought back into the D and despatched past Byrne. Player of the match Danni Donovan halved the deficit when she converted a well worked short corner.

Despite holding the upper hand through better passing, Beaminster could not find an equaliser.

WEYMOUTH & DISTRICT TABLE TENNIS

Preston B 25 Shipton Gorge b 10

SHIPTON underestimated the strength of their hosts and the decision to rest their top players backfired in a big way.

David Poole managed two 3-2 wins for his six points and debutant Alan Woodbridge had a good 3 - 0 win but could not add to this against his other two opponents. Peter Green in his first match for four years did not manage to score and will hope that the opposition may be less strong in future matches. Poole and Woodbridge won a further point in a 1-3 defeat in the doubles but absent skipper Ron Tucknott will be thinking hard about his future team selections.

◆ Shipton Doubles: In an event designed to mix league and social players, nine pairs competed in three groups of three for the 'Coffee and Biscuits' trophy. Jip Newell was the star lady and reached the final stages but the comfortable winners were Terry Diver and Bruce Beale.

WEST DORSET FOOTBALL WITH STUART BROOM

Cup dreams over for another year

HAVANT & WATERLOOVILLE 4
DORCHESTER TOWN 1
FA CUP QUALIFING - attendance 708

DORCHESTER Town's FA Cup dreams are over for another year as they were outplayed by Havant & Waterlooville on Saturday.

The Magpies had played out a goalless draw with the Hawks back in late August to gain their first league point of the season, and would have been hoping for at least the same result this time. However a brace from Mustafa Tiryaki and goals from former county town player Wes Fogden and Manny Williams meant there were no dreams of giant killing this year.

However things might have been different if Ryan Moss had not been thwarted by two excellent saves from home gloveman Aaron Howe before the Hawks went ahead.

First he pushed Moss' angled left foot angled shot beyond the far post after just two minutes, before reaching high to palm away Moss' attempted lob after he had held off Sam Pearce. Scott Guyett headed just wide of the far post from the resulting corner.

Almost immediately Tiryaki put the hosts ahead with their first effort on goal when he converted Fogden's cut back from the byeline.

Neil Martin had a great chance to put Dorchester level but sliced his attempted volley wide of goal after Howe had failed to hold Nathan Walker's hard shot. The Hawks made the Magpies pay for the miss when Williams added another midway through the half when from another Fogden cross he drove the ball just inside Simon Evans' near post.

Dave Allen replaced Martin in midfield six minutes before the break, but his first contribution was to go into the referee's notebook for a foul on Fogden.

Any thoughts the Magpies had of getting back into the match were dashed seven minutes into the second half, and it was Fogden, this time scorer rather than the provider. He met William's cross at the near post to whip his volley high into the net.

Dorchester were forced to throw caution to the wind and after Howe awkwardly held Ryan Hills curling shot, Danny Ings pulled a goal back on 68 minutes with a glorious waist high volley from Steve Devlin's cross that sizzled into the top corner.

The Hawks restored their three goal lead four minutes later when Tiryaki struck his second of the match. Williams made his way almost to the goal line before pulling the ball back across the box where Tiryaki hit a stunning 25-yard shot that ripped into the top corner of the net.

Dorchester were unlucky soon after when Jamie Gleeson's shot beat Howe but Jake Newton cleared off the line, and the afternoon finished on a sour note when substitute Gary Bowles was sent off for two yellow cards in the closing minutes having first taken down Tiryaki from behind before receiving a second caution almost immediately for dissent.

Dogged Terras finally get the break

WEYMOUTH 1 CIRENCESTER TOWN 0
Zamaretto Premier - Att: 449

WARREN Byerley coolly sank the penalty that lifted the gloom on a traumatic week for the Terras, and registered Weymouth's maiden victory at the newly named Bob Lucas Stadium.

It may have been a soft decision by referee Andy Turner when the ball appeared to just brush the arm of Centurions defender Scott, but it may be enough to turn the Terras season around, and Byerley calmly slotted home the spot kick, sending keeper Matt Bulman the wrong way.

It was no more than Weymouth deserved for a battling performance that saw manager Ian Hutchinson have to make three changes following the departure of Courtney Pitt, Jamie McGuinness and Cameron Mawer earlier in the week, but their young replacements John Litherland, Alex Halloran and Matteo King stepped into the breach superbly. Particularly Litherland who gave a no frills, no nonsense display in front of the back four, allowing a fit again Rob Wolleaston to command the midfield.

There was drama throughout the match with both sides showing commitment with end to end action, and how the Weymouth faithful loved it.

Despite the problems at the club, both on and off the field, the Terras have been blessed with superb support, and they showed their joy and relief by giving their side a standing ovation at the end.

The joy was recording their first home win and first league victory after five successive defeats; their relief surviving the final 13 minutes of normal time and six minutes of added time after striker Matthew Wright was dismissed two minutes after the goal.

The Terras created chances throughout the match with both Wright and Byerley going close on several occasions, whilst at the other end keeper Tom Manley pulled off a string of fine saves as Cirencester looked to improve their midtable position.

Matt Oldring after missing a good opportunity to put Weymouth ahead after Bulman could only block Matt Groves shot then denied Jodie Bevan at the other end by blocking his shot.

Wolleaston had a shot cleared off the line and Bulman denied Byerley with an excellent save as Weymouth looked for the goal they deserved which eventually came 15 minutes from the end.

Despite Wright's dismissal, the Terras hung on to reduce the gap at the bottom and give themselves belief that they have turned the corner.

Bees do enough to progress

STURMINSTER NEWTON 2 BRIDPORT 3

BRIDPORT once again found the vagaries of cup competitions difficult to digest as they sneaked past Sturminster Newton in the first round of the Dorset Senior Cup.

Having been unceremoniously dumped out of the FA Cup and FA Vase by higher opposition, the Bees found they were under pressure being the senior side, and could have been forced into a replay had Rob Froud not missed a glorious chance from six yards with the last kick of the game.

Although Howard Batten looked distinctly offside when he was put clear down the wing by Mike Budd in the dying seconds, no flag was raised. His low cross into the box found Froud with only keeper Sam Filkins to beat, but he somehow managed to shoot past the post.

It would have been hard luck on Bridport had he scored for apart from that chance and the two goals they scored, both beauties, Stur rarely troubled the Bees defence.

Sturminster Newton are firmly rooted at the bottom of the Magna Dorset Premier League having lost all ten games to date and conceded 41 goals, whilst Bridport have won all their seven Toolstation Western League First Division matches, so it appeared to be a mere formality for the Bees.

However it took the visitors 40 minutes to break the deadlock, and it was Dan Wise with one of his trademark free kicks that did it;.smashing home one of his specials from 25-yards that ripped into the top corner of the net.

Bridport would have hoped to have built on this lead bur Stur struck back immediately after the interval when they broke through the Bees rearguard and Luke Turk scored with an equally sensational goal, curling his shot around Filkins into the top corner from an identical position to Wise.

However Bridport hit back within two minutes through Jamie Symes who has rejected Sherborne Town's advances and confirmed that he is definitely staying at St Mary's Field. He met Wise's corner to score his eleventh goal of the season with a fine header from 10 yards that found the top corner.

Ryan Dovell once again joined Symes at the top of the goal scoring charts when he poked home from close range on the hour to increase the Bee's lead. Wise's free kick came back off the crossbar and when Chris Senior's effort was blocked on the line, Dovell pounced.

Stur got back in the game when they scored another spectacular goal eight minutes later. This time it was Budd who held off his defender before firing beyond Filkins right hand and in off the upright from the edge of the box.

Bridport continued to make chances, Jamie Symes heading just wide and having another blocked, but they almost paid for it in the last minute. Fortunately for the Bees a replay wasn't necessary as their league fixtures pile up due to cup commitments.

Bridport are at home to Swanage & Herston in the next round, with the Dorset FA scheduling the game for either November 2nd or 6th. At present the Bees are home in the league on both of these dates, so there will inevitably be a further change to the fixture list.

Bees get back on winning track

KINGSTON LACY 0 BRIDPORT RES 7

AFTER a dismal run in the Dorset Premier League, Bridport Reserves finally got some respite with a win against lower league opposition in the Dorset Senior Trophy.

The Dorset Senior League hosts however played their part in what was an entertaining encounter until with the Bees coasting the match turned ugly and Bridport's Dominic McAllister was red carded ten minutes from the end for a poor tackle.

The teams went into the break goalless, with both sides having created a couple of goalscoring chances. However with team managers Steve Crabb and Mark Lock instructing their charges to move the ball quicker in the second half, the game soon turned their way.

Within a minute of the restart Chris Herbst played in Robin Jones down the left wing and his cross was swept home by Tristan Gale, for his first goal of the season. Life suddenly became easier for the Bees and they started to score at will.

Gale added a second and Ben Clarke grabbed a brace before brother Ashley slammed home a penalty. An own goal and the goal of the match from Carl Bulman completed the scoring. Bulman finished a four man, one touch move that saw Herbst lay the ball into the midfielders path to score with a rising shot from just inside the penalty area.

Jones who was substituted after an hour did well in his debut, as did another debutant Gino Scovell, whose goals for the Thirds prompted the promotion, who played the last half an hour.

Crabb said: "If I'm honest we didn't deserve to win by so many and for long periods particularly they were equal to us, but the win will help lift the lads. They had as many chances as us first half, but once we got ahead we took control. It was a pity the game got a bit feisty towards the end as it had been played in good spirit for most of the match."

Paull wins it for anxious Bees

PORTESHAM UTD 0 BRIDPORT THIRDS 1

A COLIN Paull goal midway through the first half was enough to give Bridport Thirds the points, but didn't settle their anxiety resulting in a less than convincing performance.

The Bees suffered a flashback from the previous week when they were upset by a couple of decisions from referee Bob Brittain, and were perplexed to find that he was also in charge of this match.

They let this get to them and as a result failed to produce the fluent football that has seen them unbeaten so far in Dorset Division Two.

Joint manager Ian Pincombe said: "We did alright and did what we had to do, such that keeper Lee Cuff didn't have a serious shot to save despite them having some pressure in the second-half. However some of the players got caught up in decisions from last week and let it get to them, and as a result we didn't play our normal game."

Having had what appeared a good shout for handball last week, Bridport felt there were another two clear similar decisions that were not given, but there was no doubting the winner, Paull firing home a 19th minute 20-yard free kick, the result of a foul.

With Gino Scovell promoted to the reserves, Pincombe and fellow joint manager Jason Forbes gave Ali Kamara his full debut. He did well in the circumstances being starved of service in a match short of goalmouth action.

Mr Brittain had another busy Saturday night writing his report. Having sent James Legg off last week for two yellow cards, he booked another five Bridport players in this match who became frustrated by his decisions.

"The only good thing you can say about it is that we won and kept a clean sheet," said Pincombe.

WIMBORNE U11 9 BRIDPORT 2

AFTER three straight wins to the season, Bridport travelled to Wimborne with high hopes but were taught a footballing lesson by their hosts who played with passion and desire and outmuscled their opponents.

Wimborne took the lead after five minutes when a mistake in midfield allowed a forward to run clear and shoot high into the top corner of the net, but to Bridport's credit they fought back with a brilliantly worked goal that saw Thomas Hyde smash home the equaliser.

This would normally see Bridport up their game to another level but they eased off and Wimborne went in at the interval with a convincing 4-1 lead.

The opening ten minutes of the second half saw both sides cancel each other out, but the hosts soon took command and added another four goals as they overran a distinctly uninterested Bridport midfield. The visitors pulled one back through a Jaydon Scadding penalty, and for ten minutes Bridport bossed the game and should have scored a couple more.

With time running out they should have been awarded another penalty when Jamie Herbert was pushed to the ground when clean through on goal, but the referee ignored their pleas, and Wimborne broke away to score a final goal.

Manager Mark Scadding said: "They gave us a lesson in how to play football with passion and desire and win every challenge and tackle. The lads need to now take a good, long look at themselves and realise that this is Division One and no team is going to show you any respect; you have to earn it and play with a passion to match your opponents."

BOB BUCKLER RACING

Clyffe Hanger pleases

BOB Buckler's yard are just getting up and running as the main part of the jumping season bursts into action, and whilst none of the three that ran last week made the frame, Buckler was generally pleased with their form.

Ten-year-old Clyffe Hanger gave the best performance in the Class 2 Daybreak Dairies Novices' Chase at Chepstow over three miles. Against the four top rated horses in the original declaration including Paul Nicholls evens favourite Watamu Bay, he finished a very creditable fourth.

He was in the mix until he hit the fifth last, but after briefly rallying, he weakened to finish 14 lengths down on the winner.

"I'm delighted. A brilliant run against four horses rated much higher than him."

Despite finishing sixth in the Class 2 Rhys Howells Memorial Handicap Chase over three miles on the same card, Buckler was pleased with Cullahill's efforts.

"He was there about until he made a mistake down the back and got outpaced as he recovered, but he stayed on to finish well."

Flag Flier was a little disappointing when finishing fourth out of ten in the Lindley Catering Conditional Jockeys' Handicap Hurdle over three miles at Ffos Las on Sunday.

"Although she was fairly long in the betting I expected a bit more from her. She lost her place before recovering and looking to challenge three out but faded."

One of the yard's big guns Double Dizzy makes his first appearance since falling in the Irish Grand National at Fairyhouse in April when he goes in the Class 2 sportingbet.com Handicap Chase at Cheltenham on Friday.

INSIDE: Trio of triumphs for Bridport FC

Senior: Give Stur credit

BY STUART BROOM

BEES' manager Trevor Senior was full of admiration for struggling Sturminster Newton's performance in their Dorset Senior Cup clash against his side who have won all seven Toolstation Western League League One matches to date this season.

"Give credit to Sturminster Newton. This was their game of the season, and whilst the result suggests it was closer than it was, they scored two cracking goals and missed a sitter with the last kick of the match which would have earned them a replay.

"I have to be honest and thought that it would have been easier than it was, but no game is nailed on."

The Bees came through the match with no injuries, although it was disturbing that Matt Moors is once again on the injury list. Having spent most of the year with first knee and then ankle injuries, he turned his ankle again in training on astro turf last week and must now spend 6-8 week to allow it to recover properly.

"It would appear that there is a weakness that needs to heal properly," said Senior.

Senior returned in time to lead his side at Stur having been to France to record a radio and TV programme about players from his former club Reading who were killed in the First World War at the Battle of the Somme.

"I didn't know what to expect as they kept much of the detail from us to ensure they got the reactions to our first thoughts, and I found it very emotional and moving."

Senior together with current Reading manager Brian McDermott, former playing colleague Mick Gooding, and Adrian Williams - an apprentice when Senior was at the club - were taking part in a programme for Radio Berkshire scheduled to be heard on Armistice Sunday, whereby each of them follow the story of a particular player who fought at the Somme.

"We were taken to the battlefield and were shown the trenches, the tented hospital area where the injured were taken and finally to the cemetery where there are just rows and rows of graves; there was a monument with 70,000 soldiers names engraved on it. It was very emotional particularly as the skies were very overcast.

Senior followed the fortunes of fellow striker Alan Foster which will be the subject of a ten minute feature on BBC South Today's programme Inside Out. sadly Foster was killed in battle.
